REVISION REPORT IN

Momentous Document Submitted to General Assembly of the Presbyterians.

REPORT TO BE DEBATED NEXT WEEK

New York, May 16.—The second day's session of the Presbyterian general assembly began at 9 o'clock in the Fifth avenue Presbyterian church. The first half hour was taken up with devotional exercises and then the business program was begun, the new moderator, the Rev. Dr. Henry Vandyke, presiding. The morning session was consumed in the presenting of reports of special committees, among them being that of the special committee on the revision of the confession of faith.

REPORT ON REVISION.

The report of the Presbyterian general assembly's special committee on revision of the confession of faith covers two divisions, the work assigned to the committee having been so outlined by the assembly. In the first place, the committee says it was to prepare "a brief statement of the reformed faith" to be submitted to this assembly "for such disposition as may be judged to be wise." The other part of the work was the preparation and submission to this assembly of certain revisions of the confessions of faith, in certain specified parts of it, and concerning certain specified subjects, by the method of textual modification or by declaratory statement, or of additional statements, undoubtedly with the view to their subsequent adoption by the Presbyteries and by the general assembly.

Additional statements are recommended concerning the love of God for all Men, Missions and Holy Spirit, in the form of new chapters to be added to the confession. Also certain textual modifications. The committee proposes the following:

Overture No. 3.—Shall the following declaratory statement be adopted as to chapter X, section 3, of the confession of faith?

Second—With reference to chapter X, section 3, of the confession of faith, that it is not to be regarded as teaching that any who die in infancy are lost. We believe that all dying in infancy are included in the election of grace, and are regenerated and saved by Christ, through the spirit, who works when and where and how He pleases.

The committee says concerning the brief statement of the reformed faith that it was to be prepared "with the view to its being employed to give information and a better understanding of our doctrinal beliefs, and not with a view to its becoming a substitute for, or an alternative of our confession of faith." The committee then presents "for such disposition as may be judged wise," the following as a brief statement of the reformed faith."

Article I. Of God.

We believe in the ever-living God, who is a Spirit and the Father of our spirits; infinite, eternal and unchangeable in His being and perfections; the Lord Almighty, most just in all His ways, most glorious in holiness, unsearchable in wisdom and plenteous in mercy, full of love and compassion, and abundant in goodness and truth. We worship Him, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, three persons in one God-head, one in substance and equal in power and glory.

Article II. Of Revelation.

We believe that God is revealed in nature, in history, and in the heart of man; that He has made gracious and clearer revelations of Himself to men of God, who spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit; and that Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, is the brightness of the Father's glory and the express image of His person. We gratefully receive the Holy Scriptures, given by inspiration, to be the faithful record of God's gracious revelations and the sure witness to Christ, as the Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and life.

Article III. Of the Eternal Purpose.

We believe that the eternal, wise, holy and loving purpose of God embraces all events, so that while the freedom of man is not taken away nor is God the author of sin, yet in His providence He makes all things work together in the fulfillment of His sovereign design and the manifestation of His glory; wherefore, humbly acknowledging the mystery of this truth, we trust in His protecting care and set our hearts to do His will.

Article IV. Of the Creation.

We believe that God is the creator, upholder and governor of all things; that He is above all His works and in them all; and that He made man in His own image, meet for fellowship with Him, free and able to choose between good and evil, and forever responsible to his Maker and Lord.

Article V. Of the Sin of Man.

We believe that our first parents, being tempted, chose evil and so fell away from God and came under the power of sin, the penalty of which is eternal death; and we confess that, by reason of this disobedience, we and all men are born with a sinful nature; that we have broken God's law and that no man can be saved but by His grace.

Article VI. Of the Grace of God.

We believe that God, out of His great love for the world, has given His only begotten Son to be the Saviour of sinners, and in the Gospel freely offers His all-sufficient salvation to all men. And we praise Him for the unspeakable grace wherein He has provided a way of eternal life for all mankind.

Article VII. Of Election.

We believe that God from the beginning, in His own good pleasure, gave to His Son a people, an innumerable multitude, chosen in Christ unto holiness, service and salvation; we believe that all who come to years of discretion can receive this salvation only through faith and repentance; and we believe that all who die in infancy, and all others given by the Father to the Son who are beyond the reach of the outward means of grace, are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit, who works when and where and how He pleases.

Article VIII. Of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

We believe in and confess the Lord Jesus Christ, the only Mediator between God and man, who being the eternal Son of God, for us men and for our salvation became truly man, being conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary without sin; unto us He has revealed the Father, by His word and spirit making known the perfect will of God; for us He fulfilled all righteousness and satisfied eternal justice, offering Himself, a perfect sacrifice, upon the cross to take away the sin of the world; for us He rose from the dead and ascended into heaven, where He ever intercedes for us; in our hearts, joined to Him by faith, He abides forever as the indwelling Christ; over us, and over all for us, He rules; wherefore, unto Him we render love, obedience and adoration as our Prophet, Priest and King forever.

Article IX. Of Faith and Repentance.

We believe that God pardons our sins and accepts us as righteous, solely on the ground of the perfect obedience and sacrifice of Christ, received by faith alone; and that this saving faith is always accompanied by repentance, wherein we confess and forsake our sins with full purpose of and endeavor after a new obedience to God.

Article X. Of the Holy Spirit.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, who moves everywhere upon the hearts of men to restrain them from evil and to incite them unto good, and whom the Father is ever willing to give unto all who ask Him. We believe that He has spoken by holy men of God in making known His truth to men for their salvation; that, through our exalted Saviour, He was sent forth in power to convict the world of sin, to enlighten men's minds in the knowledge of Christ, and to persuade and enable them to obey the call of the Gospel; and that He abides with the church, dwelling in every believer as the spirit of truth, of holiness, and of comfort.

Article XI. Of the New Birth and the New Life.

We believe that the Holy Spirit only is the author and source of the new birth; we rejoice in the new life, wherein He is given unto us as the seal of sonship in Christ, and keeps loving fellowship with us, helps us in our infirmities, purges us from our faults, and ever continues His transforming work in us until we are perfected in the likeness of Christ, in the glory of the life to come.

Article XII. Of the Resurrection and the Life to Come.

We believe that in the life to come the spirits of the just, at death made free from sin, enjoy immediate communion with God and the vision of His glory; and we confidently look for the general resurrection in the last day, when the bodies of those who sleep in Christ shall be fashioned in the likeness of the glorious body of their Lord, with whom they shall live and reign forever.

REV. DR. HENRY VAN DYKE.

Elected Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly.

Article XIII. Of the Law of God.

We believe that the law of God, revealed in the Ten Commandments, and more clearly disclosed in the words of Christ, is forever established in truth and equity, so that no human work shall abide except it be built on this foundation. We believe that God requires of every man to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with his God; and that only through this harmony with the will of God shall be fulfilled that brotherhood of man wherein the kingdom of God is to be made manifest.

Article XIV. Of the Church and the Sacraments.

We believe in the Holy Catholic Church of which Christ is the only head. We believe that the Church Invisible consists of all the redeemed, and that the Church Invisible embraces all who profess the true religion together with their children. We receive to our communion all who confess and obey Christ as their divine Lord and Savior, and we hold fellowship with all believers in Him.

We receive the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper, alone divinely established and committed to the church, together with the Word, as means of grace; made effectual only by the Holy Spirit, and always to be used by Christians with prayer and praise to God.

Article XV. Of the Last Judgment.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ will come again in glorious majesty to judge the world and to make a final separation between the righteous and the wicked. The wicked shall receive the eternal reward of their sins, and the Lord will manifest the glory of His mercy in the salvation of His people and their entrance upon the full enjoyment of eternal life.

Article XVI. Of Christian Service and the Final Triumph.

We believe that it is our duty, as servants and friends of Christ, to do good unto all men, to maintain the public and private worship of God, to hallow the Lord's Day, to preserve the sanctity of the family, to uphold the just authority of the state, and so to live in all honesty, purity, and charity, that our lives shall testify of Christ. We joyfully receive the word of Christ, bidding His people go into all the world and make disciples of all nations, and declare unto them that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself, and that He will have all men to be saved and to come to

DESOLATE SCENE

ISLAND OF ST. VINCENT IS DEVASTATED.

THE RUIN IS WIDESPREAD

HAS SUFFERED MORE THAN MARTINIQUE.

GREAT SUFFERING EXISTS

FORT DE FRANCE MENACED WITH DESTRUCTION.

Paris, May 16.—A private telegram received here, via La Guira, Venezuela, says Fort De France, Martinique, is seriously threatened by the volcanic disturbance.

Kingstown, Island of St. Vincent, Thursday, May 15.—(Afternoon.)—A correspondent of The Associated Press has just returned here from a visit, on horseback, to the devastated district of this island, during which he traveled fifty miles and penetrated to within five miles of the Soufriere crater. The ash-covered area of St. Vincent exceeds that of Martinique, which the correspondent has also explored. The most conservative estimate of the death rate here now places the number at 1,700. About thirteen hundred bodies have already been interred. The entire northern part of the island is covered with ashes to an average depth of eighteen inches, varying from a thin layer at Kingstown to two feet or more at Georgetown. The crops are ruined, nothing green can be seen, the streets of Georgetown are cumbered with heaps of ashes resembling snow-drifts and ashes rest so heavily on the roofs that in several cases they have caused them to fall in. There will soon be five thousand destitute persons in need of assistance from the government, which is already doing everything possible to relieve the sufferers. There are a hundred injured people in the hospital at Georgetown, gangs of men are searching for the dead or rapidly burying them in trenches and all that can be done under the circumstances is being accomplished.

The British cruiser Indefatigable brought twenty-five tons of supplies here and returned to the island of Trinidad today for more.

The governor of the Windward Islands, Sir Robert Llewellyn, is here supervising the work of the authorities.

GREATER DESTITUTION.

While the outbreak of the volcano on the Island of Martinique killed more people outright, more territory has been ruined in St. Vincent, hence there is greater destitution here.

The injured persons were horribly burned by the hot grit which was driven along with tremendous velocity. Twenty-six persons, who sought refuge in a room ten feet by twelve, were all killed. One person was brained with a huge stone nine miles from the crater.

Rough coffins are being made to receive the remains of the victims. The hospital here is filled with dying people. Fifty injured persons are lying on the floor of that building, as there are no beds for their accommodation, though cots are being rapidly constructed of boards. This and similar work has been in progress since immediately after the disaster. Two days elapsed, however, before there were any burials, as the negroes refused to dig the necessary trenches, though they were offered three times the usual wages by the local authorities. The nurses employed are incompetent, but they are willing to learn and are working hard. The negroes are indifferent to all that is transpiring and to what has taken place. They expect to receive government rations, but there have been instances where they have refused to bury their own relatives.

The arrival here of the first detachment of the ambulance corps, which brought sufferers from Georgetown, caused quite a sensation. This batch consisted of a hundred persons, whose charred bodies exhaled fetid odors and whose loathsome faces made even the hospital attendants shudder. It is doubtful whether one of the whole party will recover.

The death rate among the people in the hospitals is still very high, in spite of the best medical efforts made in their behalf. All the neighboring British colonies are evincing sympathy with the sufferers here. Subscription lists have been started and food and clothing are being forwarded to St. Vincent from all the British islands.

While the entire community is thankful for this help and sympathy from British sources, on all sides are heard grateful appreciation of the prompt aid furnished by the United States, in sending the Potomac here with provisions and other things for the destitute people of St. Vincent.

The sulphuric vapors which still exhale all over the island are increasing the sickness and mortality among the surviving inhabitants and are causing suffering among the new arrivals. The hospital staffs are giving way to overwork and are with difficulty bearing up.

The stench in the afflicted districts is terrible beyond description. Nearly all the huts left standing are filled with dead bodies. In some cases disinfectants and the usual means of disposing of the dead are useless and cremation has been resorted to. When it is possible the bodies are dragged with ropes to the trenches and are there hastily covered up, quicklime being used when available. Many of the dead bodies were so covered with dust that they were not discovered until they were walked upon by visitors or by the relieving officers or their assistants. The scenes witnessed were unprecedented in the history of this colony.

VISITED ST. PIERRE.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., May 16.—The Danish cruiser Valkyrien has returned from Martiniques. The correspondent here of the Associated Press has had an interview with one of the Valkyrien's officers, who said:

"We left St. Thomas the afternoon of May 9. The next day, when seventy miles from Martinique the falling volcanic ashes became troublesome. We approached the island and discovered St. Pierre to be burning. We made signals to the shore, but no replies were received. We then lay off for the night and witnessed a remarkable spectacle of fire and lightning. Ashes fell and detonations were heard.

"In the morning we saw the French cruiser Suchet and went nearer the shore. The ashes became dense as we approached, and many dead bodies were floating on the sea. They were burned and swollen. As we approached St. Pierre we saw the town was covered with ashes. We then joined the cruiser Suchet and the cable repair ship Pouyer-Quertier and together went toward Le Precheur. The rain of ashes was heavy and shrouded the Suchet. Soon the atmosphere cleared up and we ran close to Le Precheur and then to Hamean des Sabines. The boats from all three ships were put overboard, and the rescue of people from the shore commenced at 11 o'clock in the morning. We were all covered with gray ashes, our eyes were weeping and the heat was intolerable. Several big pans on board our ship were filled with cooked food and placed on deck; they were soon surrounded by a crowd of chattering natives.

"The negroes were all saved by 4 o'clock in the afternoon, except a few who refused to leave the land. At this hour the Suchet signalled 'The operation is over; thank you.' The Suchet then steamed away in the direction of Fort De France. But our boats had not yet all returned to the ship. We were still waiting for the last one when there was a tremendous report from the crater of Mont Pelee, quickly followed by a second. These explosions caused great excitement on shore and our last boat returned to us, bringing the remainder of the negroes, including those who had previously refused to leave. They had been frightened by the reports and jumping into the sea had swam out to the boat.

"We saved 600 people from the north side where, on account of the wind, there were not so many ashes. We proceeded to Fort De France and landed there the people we had rescued, as well as some provisions. At the latter port a government official came on board the Valkyrien and thanked us all for what we had done."

CARNEGIE WILLING TO BUY THE PHILIPPINES

London, May 16.—When asked today whether there was any truth in the published statement that he had offered to pay $20,000,000 for the Philippine Islands, provided he was authorized to announce to the Filipinos that their independence would be acknowledged ultimately by the United States, Andrew Carnegie laconically replied: "Yes, and I meant it."

MINISTER TO CUBA IS NOMINATED TODAY

Washington, May 16.—The president today sent to the senate the nominations of Herbert Goldsmith Squires, New York, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the republic of Cuba, and Edward S. Bragg, Wisconsin, consul general to Havana.

A MIGHTY CONFLICT

National Suspension of Coal Mining Imminent to Aid the Strike of Anthracite Men.

HALF MILLION MEN WOULD BE IDLE

Hazelton, Pa., May 16.—The convention of anthracite miners adjourned sine die today at 11:45 o'clock, after an interesting session in which it was decided to leave the matter of calling out the engineers, firemen and pump runners to the national and district officers.

Steps were taken by the convention to involve in the strike all the bituminous and anthracite coal miners in the United States. According to the rules of the union it requires five districts to call a national convention. The three anthracite districts will immediately get into correspondence with the bituminous districts with the hope of gaining the consent of two of them for the issuance of a call for a special national convention, at which the question of involving all the bituminous miners in the United States in the present struggle will be discussed. The officials hope that if this special convention is called, which is not unlikely, they will be able to bring out the non-union bituminous miners in Virginia, West Virginia and Central Pennsylvania. Other plans of campaign were discussed by the delegates, but on these the members of the convention would not talk.

MITCHELL'S STATEMENT.

After the adjournment President Mitchell issued the following statement:

"At this morning's session the convention petitioned the national officers to issue a call for a national convention of all miners employed in the United States, for the purpose of considering the situation in the anthracite field. If the desire of the anthracite miners is carried into effect a national suspension of coal mining will be inaugurated. All questions of detail as to the direction of the strike in the anthracite field were referred to the district and national officers. Definite plans will be outlined within the next few days. For the present the engineers, firemen and pump runners will continue at work. All mine workers were advised to remain at their homes, abstain from frequenting saloons and under all circumstances observe the law."

At present the United Mine Workers is at variance with the bituminous mine operators in Pennsylvania, Virginia, Kentucky and Michigan, and if the national convention meets and decides to assist the anthracite miners the men in these four states would probably be the first to be affected.

Mr. Mitchell said that if a general strike did take place it would involve altogether 449,000 men, who are employed in and about the coal mines of the United States.

WILL MAKE UP THE CALL.

The Associated Press has it from the highest authority that the Michigan district and the West Virginia district will probably make up the necessary five districts needed to call a special national convention, and that the convention will be held as soon as the machinery can be set in motion. In Michigan there are about 3,000 men now on strike and about 2,000 in West Virginia. The same high authority says the 35,000 men in Virginia and West Virginia and from 15,000 to 20,000 in central Pennsylvania will, without doubt, be on a strike within a few days unless demands that have been laid before the bituminous operators are granted. These men can strike without the sanction of the special convention.

Secretary-Treasurer W. B. Wilson, who acted as secretary of the convention, left this afternoon for Indianapolis.

STRIKE IS INAUGURATED.

Hazelton, Pa., May 16.—The great coal strike, which was inaugurated permanently last evening, is now in full swing. There were no developments previous to the reassembling of the convention in secret session shortly after 9 o'clock this morning.

From the gossip of the delegates it is expected that the proposition to call out the mine engineers, firemen and pump runners, thus endangering the safety of the mines, will meet with as much opposition as did the motion to make the strike permanent. Those who advocated the continued suspension of work are, as a rule, in favor of calling out these men. They argue that the more the mine owners are inconvenienced and harrassed the sooner they will weaken and grant the men some slight concessions. The more conservative mine workers fear that to call out the protectors of the mines would be a boomerang that might prove extremely costly to the miners. It is argued by them that the United Mine Workers' organization has all along followed the policy of assisting the companies in protecting their properties.

OPPOSES THE PLAN.

One delegate said this morning: "I am against calling out the engineers, firemen and pump runners, because I believe the union should protect property rather than stand by and see it go to destruction. If the convention decides to call out the men and the companies fail to fill their places, nearly every mine in the region would fill with water, which would mean tremendous loss to the owners. It would take months to pump out this water and in many cases the flooding of the workings would ruin them beyond all repair. Another danger would be the accumulation of gases. After the strike is over and the water has been pumped out, the men would run great risk in entering the mines."

If the convention decides to call out the engineers, firemen and pump runners, it is not certain that the order would be obeyed by all of this class of mine workers. The union officials say that most of them belong to the union, but this is denied by the firemen, who insist that their organization, which is a separate one from the United Mine Workers, is quite strong numerically.

A COMPLICATION.

The firemen's union has somewhat complicated the situation by proposing to the mine workers that they will go out voluntarily if the latter will back them up in the demands that they make upon the operators. The miners' officials have refused to commit themselves on this proposition and it will likely be fought out on the floor of the convention.

President Mitchell stated most emphatically today that the report that a telegram from Senator Hanna was read in the convention before the vote was taken on the strike question is absolutely untrue. Mr. Mitchell also brands as false the statement that he had been visited by a representative of Senator Hanna with a proposition that the miners accept a 5 per cent. increase in wages.

STRIKE REGION QUIET.

There was not the usual big crowd around the convention hall today, neither was the attendance of delegates so great, a number of them having returned to their homes last night. Reports from all parts of the region show that everything is quiet and that the men are determined to stand by the strike order.

Local unions throughout the region are in session preparing for the campaign and adopting plans for relief of members. The coal companies continue to make preparations for a long strike. The coal and iron police, who are sworn in by the state of Pennsylvania, but who are paid by the coal companies, are now more active and alert, but their services are hardly needed at this time, because the strikers are keeping away from the collieries.

The Lehigh Valley Coal company today removed the mules from its mines in this vicinity and placed them in pasture. The electric railway company has reduced its service one-half and laid off a number of their employes. Because of the stagnation of business traffic is becoming very light. Many industrial establishments are experiencing difficulty in getting coal and are economizing in this respect.

MAY BUY CAR LINE

TRACTION PROPERTY LOOKED OVER BY EXPERTS.

IT MAY BE WIDENER-ELKINS

SYNDICATE SEEKING LOCAL TRACTION SYSTEM.

ADMITTED THAT DEAL IS ON

MANAGER SCOTT SAYS NO OPTION HAS BEEN GIVEN.

There are indications that the big Widener-Elkins street railway syndicate is behind the project to purchase the lines of the Fort Wayne Traction company, though no one can be found who will make an authoritative statement in the matter. There are reasons, also, for the belief that the negotiations have progressed to a point where a deal may be closed at any time for the purchase of the property.

The announcement exclusively in The Sentinel Thursday evening that Col. J. L. Jones, of Philadelphia, with other eastern capitalists, and James Murdock, of Lafayette, were in the city making a quiet inspection of the lines was the first intimation given to the public that a transaction looking to the purchase of Fort Wayne street car lines was under way. Mr. Jones is well up toward the head of American street railway men, and he is cautious. It was not desired that news of the inspection reach the public, and while Colonel Jones was a guest at the Wayne hotel he took the precaution not to register.

Mr. Jones and Bayard Henry, of Philadelphia, left for the east last evening, and Mr. Murdock took a train for Lima. Before leaving, however, Mr. Murdock admitted that the visit to Fort Wayne was for the purpose of inspecting the street railway lines; that the property was for sale and a price fixed upon it. "Whether it is worth what is asked we will decide within the next three weeks, and either buy or drop the matter. That is all there is to say," remarked Mr. Murdock. Mr. Jones declined to talk about the purchase, but he was cordial and complimentary in his references to the city. Mr. Paul also declined to add anything to Mr. Murdock's statement.

In two carriages Mr. Murdock, Mr. Henry, Mr. Jones and H. C. Paul yesterday drove over the lines of the city street railway, making a pretty thorough inspection of the tracks, then visited the power station, the car barns and Manager Scott's office. Before they separated there was an extended conference at the Wayne hotel. Mr. Jones is very largely interested in street railways, and is an expert in his line. He has large holdings in the east, has been identified with the big Widener-Elkins syndicate, and is also a stockholder with Mr. Murdock in the Lafayette company, and with George F. McCulloch in the Union Traction company's big Indiana system of interurban lines, as well as in the Indianapolis city street railway. The quartet who were quietly looking over Fort Wayne street railway property yesterday represents an immense amount of money, and is amply able to carry forward mammoth enterprises.

HAVE NO OPTION.

When asked about the visit of the strangers yesterday, Manager Scott stated that they were inspecting the property, but there was no possible way of forseeing the outcome. "The property is for sale at a price," said Mr. Scott, "but whether or not these gentlemen will buy I do not know."

Mr. Scott was positive, however, that no option had been given on the property, and he stated that so far as he was aware no offer had been made for the lines by Mr. Murdock and his associates. "Nobody has an option," continued Mr. Scott, "and nobody will get an option. If anybody comes forward with the price asked they will probably get the property; that's about all there is to it."

It is learned that a year or two ago the company held the property at $1,500,000, and against this had an offer of $1,250,000. Mr. Scott doubted very much whether the property could now be purchased for the figure first named. "The conditions are now considerably different from those then existing," said he, "and we have improved the property to the amount of many thousands of dollars since that time."

PASTOR PRESTON'S THEME.

Next Sabbath evening Rev. Asher S. Preston, pastor of Wayne street M. E. church, will draw lessons from the wonders and beauties of Yellowstone park. His subject will be "Through Yellowstone Park Awheel." This region, with its snowy peaks, rainbow-colored springs, spouting geysers, petrified trees and glories indescribable of Great Falls and Grand Canyon is surely a place where God speaks through His works to the listening soul.

ORIENTAL RUGS AT AUCTION.

Our Auction Sale yesterday of the Simoyan collection of Oriental Rugs was a booming success in everything but prices. One Rug only brought $80 that was marked at private sale $175, and was cheap at this higher price. A good many others were sold as cheap in proportion. However, as the stock must be disposed of, they were all allowed to go, whenever there was competition.

The sale will be continued this evening and tomorrow at 10 a. m. and 2 and 8 p. m. Specially good bargains are usually obtained in the evenings, as not quite as many bidders are likely to be present. Some Rugs sold last evening went at a great sacrifice.

CHANGE IN WAYNE BUGGY CO.

H. KOHRMAN AND T. HARGES NEW OWNERS.

Purchase Interests of Paul and Gottlieb Striedor and Herbert Kemp.

A change in the ownership of the Wayne Buggy works, 218 and 220 East Columbia street, occurred this week, Henry W. Kohrman and Theodore Harges purchasing the entire interests of Paul and Gottlieb Striedor and Herbert Kemp. Paul Striedor will remain with the concern, but will not be connected with the management.

Mr. Kohrman has been for a number of years with the White National bank as bookkeeper, but resigned his position a few weeks ago, when negotiations were opened for the sale of the buggy concern. He was a member of the council for nearly a year, resigning his seat about a month ago. Mr. Harges has been connected with the concern in a clerical capacity for several years.

Gottlieb Striedor and Herbert Kemp are the principal stockholders in the Fort Wayne Spoke factory and disposed of their interests in the Wayne Buggy concern in order to devote their entire time to the business of the spoke factory, which has been increasing rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Guider, left this morning for Denver, Col., to reside.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES OF BEETS

The work on the railway of the Great Western Beet Sugar company, extending on both sides of the Big Thompson, in Colorado, is progressing steadily, and it is assured that the road will be completed in due time this summer. This road is the first of the kind attempted by any of the large sugar companies in the mountain region. It is intended primarily as a means of conveying the beets to the factory and its largest business will be during the fall and winter. Reports from the different portions of the territory received at headquarters of the Great Western company in Denver are highly encouraging. The company expects to plant 14,000 acres in beets this spring and 7,000 acres are already planted. Eight or ten superintendents, each accredited to a certain district, are in the field directing the planting of the beet seed. The company supplies and plants the seed, expecting the farmer to put the ground in proper condition for the work. After the seeds are in the ground, the farmer is expected to attend to the cultivation of the beets, weed the fields, thin out the beets and convey the tubers to the nearest station for delivery at the factory. The beet seed is brought from Germany and orders were placed months ago for 280,000 pounds of seed to supply the requirements for the Loveland factory.

It is estimated by outsiders that the plants at Eaton and Greeley will make use this year of beets from 10,000 or 12,000 acres. This will make an entire beet area in Northern Colorado of 25,000 acres.—Denver News.

It's Really Remarkable

How Many Men Sacrifice Their Money to a False PRIDE.

We know numbers of them who have their clothes made to measure simply because they desire to be able to show their friend the tailor's label, so as to prove their disclaim for anything that is not made "especially" for them. We don't despair of converting this class to our ready-to-wear garments. But you who are sensible—we want you to come to us and let us show you "The Stein Bloch" and "Fechheimer Fishel' Suits. You can readlyCO MPARE them with regard to fit, cloth, quality, tailoring and style with those your tailor has made to your measure, and we will take it for granted that you have been going to one of our GOOD tailors. Drop into our store tomorrow and see what we have to show you.

Mercury and Potash

ONLY SERVE AS A MASK FOR CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

They hide its repulsive form, and this serpent disease, stupefied by these drugs, lies dormant until the effects have worn off or treatment is discontinued, when it breaks down the mask and becomes as full of life and venom as ever. Mercury and Potash may dry up the sores and eruptions, but at the same time they drive the poison back into the blood and system, where it feeds upon the tender tissues, membranes and nerves, finally breaking out in most disgusting sores and even destroying the flesh and bones.

Mercury and Potash cannot accomplish a radical and permanent cure. They have a palliative but not curative effect upon this treacherous snake-like disease. These drugs produce mercurial Rheumatism, destroy the teeth and corrode the membranes of the stomach and bowels, causing inflammation and dyspepsia, nervousness and general derangement of the system.

S. S. S. is a Specific for Contagious Blood Poison, and the only antidote for the peculiar virus that spreads so quickly throughout the system, corrupting the blood and infecting every organ and fibre of the body.

SSS S. S. S. destroys the serpent, and eliminates every atom of poison from the blood, it makes a thorough and radical cure of the disease, and at the same time builds up the general health. S. S. S. contains no minerals of any kind, but is a purely vegetable remedy and we offer $1,000 for proof to the contrary.

Write us about your case and our physicians will cheerfully advise without charge. Our home treatment book will be sent free to all who desire it. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, Atlanta, Ga.

Hard Colds

Hard colds nearly always lead to something serious. They run into chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, consumption. Doctors know this. That's why they so generally approve of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. They tell us they cannot prescribe anything that cures coughs so quickly.

HE KNEW THE FACT.

A convict at a French penal settlement who was undergoing a life sentence desired to marry a female convict, such marriages being of common occurrence, says the Edinburgh Scotchman. The governor of the colony offered no objection, but the priest proceeded to cross-examine the prisoner.

"Did you not marry in France?" he asked.

"Yes."

"And your wife is dead?"

"She is."

"Have you any document to show that she is dead?

"No."

"Then I must decline to marry you. You must produce some proof that your wife is dead."

There was a pause, and the bride prospective looked at the would-be groom.

Finally he said: "I can prove that my former wife is dead."

"How will you do so?"

"I was sent here for killing her."

The bride accepted him notwithstanding.

Martinique is a French possession, but France and the people of France are doing much less for relief of the stricken inhabitants of that island than the United States is doing. On many accounts your Uncle Samuel could not be easily dispensed with by the world at large.

Indiana is and ought to be proud of the soldiers' monument which has just been dedicated. No such memorial shaft has ever before been erected to perpetuate the valor and the deeds of patriots. The splendid shaft at Indianapolis is the most pretentious soldiers' monument in all the world and to the state which has so generously provided the money to build it great credit is due.

The Lafayette Journal, established in 1829 and the oldest democratic newspaper in Indiana, has been consolidated with other newspaper interests in that city and hereafter will be published as a republican newspaper. The new firm will be known as the Burt, Terry, Wilson Publishing company. The Journal will be continued as a morning paper and W. Bent Wilson, one of the best known democrats and democratic journalists of the state will have active participation in the management of the consolidated property.

This change leaves Lafayette for the present without a democratic newspaper, but it is said that a stock company is to be organized for the purpose of acquiring the Sunday Morning Times which will be converted into a daily and become the organ of the Lafayette and Tippecanoe county democracy.

The decision of the anthracite miners to continue their strike is an unfortunate fact. It means a long season of industrial war, the effect of which will be felt in every field of labor. It is due to the miners to say that they sought through the means of arbitration to avoid going on strike and it is due to the high officers of the miners' organization to say that they opposed a strike, even after the coal operators had peremptorily declined to submit the matters at issue to a tribunal of arbitration. Since the strike is on it must be the hope of every one that it will not be marked by disorder and violence.

A very large percentage of the people of Fort Wayne are directly interested in the kind of pavement with which West Main street is to be improved. Main street affords the only access to Lindenwood cemetery and there is special reason why the pavement should be of the best quality, both for durability and smoothness. The property owners along the street have, of course, first right to say with what material the street shall be paved and what the general quality of the pavement shall be, for they have it to pay for. But we do not believe those who will inquire into the matter will consent that any pavement shall be laid on no better foundation than the thin coat of cracked stone and gravel which was placed beneath the wooden block pavement at present in service. They should beware of any catchy argument and specious plea that such a pavement will be cheap. Such a pavement would be dear at any price, for in a short time it would be worthless. We are glad to note that the property holders along that street are taking a deeply inquiring interest in the matter.

BLEKE-YOUNG.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, on the Coldwater road, when Miss Rose Young became the wife of John Bleke. Rev. Miller, of the German Lutheran church, officiated. The bride was charmingly attired in white organdie and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaids were the Misses Gussie Young, Daisy Rupp, Addie Rinking, of this city and Katherine Planck, of Kendallville, and they were prettily gowned in white lawn and carried pink roses. The guests numbered seventy-four. A sumptuous wedding supper was served after the ceremony, the bride's table being done in red. The floral decorations of the house were very pretty, roses, tulips, sweet peas and palms being used in profusion. Mr. and Mrs. Bleke will be at home with the groom's mother, north of the city, along the Robison park line.

The Jefferson school base ball team and the high school second team will play at McCulloch's park Saturday afternoon. The teams will line up as follows: Jeffersons, Ross c, Hughes p, Farmouth 1b, Trisket 2b, Rippe ss, Minch 3b, O'Reahr lf, Flagle cf, Jeffries, rf; high schools, Leeper c, Hersh p, Comparet 1b, Dickinson 2b, Henschen ss, Ruff 3b, Tibbles lf, Vesey cf, Yardner rf.

There is hope for suffering humanity in all lands in the news from Dedham that a superior court judge has fined the Old Colony Street Railway company $25 on each of seven counts for its failure to properly heat its cars last January.

REVISION REPORT IN

the knowledge of the truth. We confidently trust that by His power and grace, all His enemies and ours shall be finally overcome, and the kingdoms of this world shall be made the kingdom of our God and of His Christ. In this faith we abide; in this service we labor, and in this hope we pray.

Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

In signing the report of the assembly's committee on revision, I except as follows: (1). I am opposed to the verbal amendment of the seventh section of chapter XVI of the confession. (2). I think it unwise to erect into a church doctrine our belief that all who die in infancy are saved. (3) I do not think that the second sentence of article X of "the brief and untechnical statement" (the article entitled "Of the Holy Spirit") accurately states the "Reformed faith."

John De Witt.

The meeting of the Women's Home Missionary board began today in the Central Presbyterian church, in Fifty-seventh street, and will continue daily until May 21.

WILL DEBATE NEXT WEEK.

The report on creed revision will not be debated until Thursday or Friday of next week. Should the report be adopted by the general assembly, it will be referred back to the Presbyteries and it will require a favorable vote of two-thirds of their number to make it a law. A two-thirds vote is required in each individual Presbytery as well.

The devotional exercises at the opening of today's session were conducted by Rev. Dr. David R. Kerr, of Omaha, Neb.

Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, pastor of the Fifth avenue church, then in a brief address, welcomed the assembly to the church and to the city.

SOME APPLAUSE EVOKED.

At the conclusion of the reading of the report on creed revision there was a wave of applause, but it was noticed that many of the commissioners remained silent.

John H. Converse, an elder from the Philadelphia presbytery, moved that the report be accepted. This motion was adopted.

Rev. Dr. David Wylie, pastor of the Scotch Presbyterian church of this city, moved that the report be adopted. This motion was laid on the table, and on motion of Dr. Minton the discussion of the report was set for next Thursday at 10 a. m., and on further motion of Dr. Minton it was resolved that at that time the discussion of the report will be continued until the subject is exhausted and the vote taken.

The reports on ministerial relief and the "Assembly Herald" were read and adopted.

An invitation from the Union Theological seminary to the members of the assembly to visit the building and make use of its facilities was read and accepted.

TURNING AGAINST BRICK.

It begins to look as though the property owners of West Main street were going to veto the board of works' decision that brick shall be the material used to pave that thoroughfare. The asphalt petitions are now being numerously signed by many persons who at first favored brick on the ground that it would be very much cheaper. At a largely attended meeting held in Gage's broom factory on West Main street last evening property owners discussed the paving question and the sentiment was overwhelmingly in favor of sheet asphalt, the Kentucky rock asphalt company's proposition being in special favor. It was pointed out to those in favor of brick that the brick figures which looked so attractive contemplated the use of the old foundation now under the cedar block, a foundation that few believe of any value at all to guarantee a durable and smooth pavement. The bid per square yard for brick on the old foundation is $1.34, while it is $1.64 under the other brick specifications. The bid for rock asphalt is $1.78 and for Trinidad sheet asphalt is $1.86. The rock asphalt petitions are today receiving many signatures that have been heretofore appended to brick petitions. The people in favor of asphalt are feeling very hopeful of setting aside the board's decision as to material.

HAD HIS SUIT DISMISSED

M. C. GROSS OUT OF SOUTHWESTERN FIGHT.

Suit Dismissed at His Cost—Other Cases Still on—Keller Divorce Case Stopped.

This morning, through his attorney, Martin C. Gross, dismissed the injunction and damage proceedings brought in his name against the Southwestern Traction company to prohibit that concern from building a street railway line down Fulton street. The dismissal was upon the motion of Samuel L. Morris, of the firm of Barrett & Morris, who represented the plaintiffs in the eight suits of a similar character filed. The plaintiff, Gross, of his own volition, paid all the costs incident to the proceedings in his case, and, according to his attorneys gave no other reason than that he did not care to incur further costs in the litigation. Asked whether the disposition of the Gross case would have any effect upon the other suits pending, Attorney Barrett said that it would not, at least so far as he was advised. Demurrers have been filed to the complaints by the defendants and these will probably be taken up by Judge O'Rourke tomorrow. In the meantime the Southwestern company is going steadily along laying concrete and grading the streets in dispute without interference notwithstanding the fact that today is the return day upon all the writs issued in the eight separate cases.

DIVORCE SUIT DISMISSED.

Temporarily at least the more or less celebrated Keller Divorce case will drop from public notice. This afternoon Counsel Leonard for the plaintiff, Jacob Keller, made a motion to dismiss without prejudice and at the same time paid the costs of the suit so far as had accrued. "Without prejudice" is a legal term which is generally supposed to be obsolete, but which is occasionally used and is supposed to signify that the case can be reopened at any time upon satisfactory grounds. If the grounds are satisfactory, a prominent attorney says, the case can be opened anyway whether the words "without prejudice" are used in the dismissal or not. The action of the court today signifies nothing beyond an ordinary dismissal of the case by agreement and does not signify that a settlement or a reconciliation is in progress. It leaves the status of the relation of the two parties to the suit precisely as though no action had ever been commenced—barring, of course, the hot stuff that trickled through the ears of the auditors at the circuit court room during the opening days of the trial early in the week.

In the receivership case of J. O. Keller, the receiver today filed his final report, which was approved and the receiver was discharged.

In relation to the case of Mossman vs. the Volute Nut-Lock company, the receiver this morning filed his final report, which was approved and receiver has not yet been ordered.

In the partition suit of Kayser vs. Mannock, the commissioner, E. J. Woodworth, filed his bond and was ordered to sell the property in controversy.

The action of Nelson L. Deming vs. George T. Ladd, on account, has been dismissed in the circuit court and costs have been paid.

The Golden divorce case has eventually been set for trial for June 21.

The Century Seating company has commenced suit against Wesley I. Work for $200 on account.

The county commissioners will meet tomorrow for the transaction of miscellaneous business and may take up the matter of appointing a successor to Trustee McComb, of Pleasant township.

It may be interesting to know that the assembly room in the court house has proved of such utility that 119 public meetings were held in it during the year ending May 1.

Judge Walpole G. Colerick is at Rome City taking a few days' rest.

Deputy Sheriff Daseler had an exciting experience for about ten seconds at noon today when he collided with another bicyclist at the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets. The other fellow got away and after Daseler came to he picked up his bicycle, placed it on his shoulder and trudged happily along to his home, where he deposited the wreck on a pile of other old scrap he has accumulated in his back yard.

The superior court jury has been ordered to report next week.

Trustee Schirmeyer returned from Indianapolis this afternoon. While there he met seventy-two of his old comrades of the Thirty-second Indiana volunteers, a regiment recruited from all over the state and composed principally of Germans.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Weil are entertaining Mr. Weil's sister, Mrs. Leo Loeser, of Ligonier.

REMANDS GAYNOR AND GREEN

AMERICANS HELD BY EXTRADITION COMMISSIONER.

Alleged Embezzlers Held Without Bail in Montreal Until Monday—Mrs. Gaynor There.

Montreal, May 16.—Judge Lafontaine, the extradition commissioner, today remanded Col. John F. Gaynor and Capt. W. D. Greene, who forfeited their bail at Savannah, Ga., early in March and fled to Canada, until Monday next without bail. Later a Quebec officer served writs of habeas corpus upon Detective Carpenter, who had the men in custody. Carpenter had avoided the officer with the writs until after the commissioner had acted.

Gaynor and Greene were taken to the residence of Judge Lafontaine, where they were formally arraigned. The officers then returned to their hotel, where they will remain until Monday. When asked if they were guilty or not guilty the prisoners did not reply, and the judge accepted their failure to plead as a plea of not guilty.

The tug Spray, with Colonel Gaynor and Captain Greene on board, arrived in Montreal at 3:10 o'clock this morning. The detectives proceeded to police headquarters with their prisoners.

At 7 o'clock the regular Quebec boat arrived bringing the Quebec detectives and lawyers and Mrs. Gaynor, who, when they saw that their chase on the river was fruitless, took the regular Montreal boat at Sorel.

HELD UP IN CHICAGO.

Christian Schwenk, of 69 Wilt street, was held up by three robbers while on a visit to Chicago this week and robbed of a wallet containing $55 in bills. Mr. Schwenk was waiting for a car on State street, when two men approached him in front and pinioned his arms, while a third proceeded to go through his pockets. The wallet was in an inner pocket of his coat and Mr. Schwenk had a considerable sum in loose change in his trousers pocket, which the robbers failed to get. Mr. Schwenk put up a vigorous struggle to free himself and one of the thugs, fearing that he would attract attention, struck him below the eye with his fists. The blow stunned Mr. Schwenk and the hold-up men got away. Mr. Schwenk furnished the Chicago police with a description of the men, but he has given up hopes of ever getting his money again.

EXPLANATION

We have had a great many customers come in our store this week and buy a number of the 50c shirts we had been showing in the window and ask how long our cut price sale would last. Others would come in and ask if we had any more of the $1.50 shirts we had been selling at 50c. Now, we want to say right here that these shirts are not $1.50 shirts, nor are we having a cut price sale on shirts. They are our regular 50c shirts, but the patterns are as good as our competitors' $1.50 and $2.00 shirts and the material is as good as can be found elsewhere at 75c.

Kodol Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

The medical profession is one of the most conservative in the world. It is well that it should be so. We want no experimenting with our lives or health. The physician is naturally and justifiably careful to prescribe no remedy until well satisfied of its merits. So it is no small testimonial to the worth of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure that it is coming into general use among physicians of all classes. They appreciate even more readily than the layman that it gives weak stomachs just the rest they need and are prescribing it freely with wonderfully successful results. No dieting is necessary. Eat all you want. While you are strengthening the body with wholesome food Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is restoring the stomach to perfect health by relieving it of its work. Don't be satisfied with merely temporary relief when this remedy offers a complete cure. "I have used in my practice quite a lot of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure with no failures but relief in almost all cases," writes Dr. W. L. Wallace of Kingstree, S. C. "After an active practice of forty-five years this is the first time I have ever had occasion to publicly advise all dyspeptics that they have a certain remedy in Kodol Dyspepsia Cure."

OFFERS MAGNIFICENT GIFT

KAISER TENDERS STATUE OF FREDERICK THE GREAT.

It Will Be Bronze and Erected in Washington to Commemorate Henry's Visit.

Wiesbaden, Hesse-Nassau, May 16.—The German emperor, Wednesday, May 14, telegraphed as follows to the president of the United States, at Washington:

"I am still under the deep impression created by the splendid and cordial reception of my brother, Prince Henry, by the citizens of the United States of America. In the speeches with which he was greeted the fact was often mentioned that my ancestor, Frederick the Great, maintained a friendly attitude towards the young American republic during the course of her formation, thereby laying the cornerstone of the friendly relations which have always existed between our two countries. The example set to me by the great king I intend to follow. I wish to commemorate the visit of Prince Henry by a gift to the people of America, which I request you to accept in their name. I intend to present a statute in broze of Frederick the Great to the United States, to be erected in Washington, on a place which you will kindly choose. May this gift be looked up to as a lasting sign of the intimate relations which have been successfully fostered and developed between our two great nations.

(Signed.) "William, I. R."

President Roosevelt replied Thursday, May 15, thanking Emperor William heartily, in the name of the United States, and saying he would lay the matter before congress immediately.

President Roosevelt decided upon a site for the statue of Frederick the Great which Emperor William proposes to present to the people of the United States. After giving the matter attention the president concluded that no action by congress was necessary and that as Frederick was a great commander it would be most appropriate to place the statue adjacent to the new war college to be established in Washington. This college is to be erected in the arsenal grounds.

CONSIDERED BY CABINET.

Washington, May 16.—At the cabinet meeting today the offer of Emperor William of Germany to present to the United States a statue of Frederick the Great, in commemoration of the visit of Prince Henry to this country, was discussed at some length. No conclusion was reached.

CONGRESSIONAL.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, May 16.—Before proceeding with the naval bill today the house passed the bill turning over to Porto Rico all the public lands of the island ceded to the United States by Spain, except sites designated by the president within one year for naval and coaling stations, military posts and other United States purposes.

A motion to instruct the conferees against the Selfridge claims in the omnibus claims bill was passed and consideration of the naval bill was resumed, the bill being read for amendment.

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, May 16.—Mr. McLaurin, of Mississippi, continued his speech in the senate today, against the Philippine bill. He had a sharp tilt with Mr. Burton, of Kansas, over General Funston. Mr. Burton assuming that Mr. McLaurin had impeached General Funston's courage as an officer in the Cuban army. Mr. Deboe, of Kentucky delivered a prepared speech in favor of the bill.

VERY NEAR TO DEATH.

Miss Ida Brown, 17 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown, of 1419 East Lewis street, is very seriously ill from dropsy and fears are entertained that her case is hopeless. Miss Brown was recovering from an attack of scarlet fever two weeks ago, when dropsy intervened. The disease has progressed despite skilled treatment until the heart is involved. Relatives have been summoned to her bedside.

DEATH OF DICKENS' SON.

Early this year there died at Moree, in New South Wales, Edward Bulwer Lytton Dickens, the tenth child and youngest son of Charles Dickens, the great novelist.

The late Edward Dickens was born on March 13, 1852, the year in which "Bleak House" was written. He bore when a child the extraordinary nickname of "Plornishghenter." Dickens was devoted to his "little Benjamin." In November, 1853, writing to his sister-in law, Miss Hogarth, he said: "The Plornishghenter is evidently the greatest, noblest, finest, cleverest, brightest and most brilliant of boys."

In 1855 he wrote to Mrs. Watson: "I think of inserting an advertisement in the Times offering to submit the Plornishghenter to public competition, and to receive £50,000 if such another can not be found, and to pay £5 (my fortune) if he can."

In 1868 the late Edward Dickens went out to New South Wales to join his elder brother, Alfred Tennyson Dickens. The parting letter from his father gives a touching insight into the domestic character of Charles Dickens.

"I need not tell you," he wrote, "that I love you dearly, and am very, very sorry in my heart to part with you. But this life is half made up of partings, and these pains must be borne.

"I exhort you to persevere in a thorough determination to do whatever you have to do as well as you can do it. I was not so old as you are now when I first had to win my food, and to do it out of this determination, and I have never slackened it since.

"Never take a mean advantage of any one in any transaction, and never be hard upon people who are in your power.

"I hope you will always be able in after life to say you had a kind father. You can not show your affection for him so well or make him so happy as by doing your duty."

The late Edward Dickens was devoted to his father's memory. He was for many years a stock and station agent at Wilcannia, on the Darling river, where he made many friends. For many years he represented this district in the New South Wales legislative assembly.

It was when a member of the assembly that he retorted very happily on a Mr. Willis, a fellow-member, whose criticisms were frequent and severe: "I used to be told that 'Barkis is willin',' but now it is 'Willis is barkin'."

The late Mr. Dickens died from consumption, after an illness of several months' duration.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago May 16.—Opening business in grains today was again of a dull and unimportant nature. July wheat opened a shade to 1⅛@1¼c higher at 75⅝c to 75¼@75⅜c on reports of more rains retarding spring sowing in the northwest. Receipts also were small enough to be bullish. Paris markets were a little firmer and Liverpool was steady. Other conditions were favorable, growing crops received rains in the west and a quiet pit worked against any good early advances. The July hung almost motionless around 75⅛c. Local receipts were 20 cars, 3 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 89 cars, making a total for the three points of 109 against 204 last week and 271 a year ago. Argentine shipments were 624,000 bushels against 776,000 bushels last year.

Wheat maintained a fair tone on the foreign situation until late in the session and July worked up to 75¼@75⅜c. Then reports of freer farm offerings and a very poor business brought a slump of 1c and July closed weak, ⅜c lower, at 74⅞@75c.

Lower cables and favorable weather and an almost total absence of demand for stuff started July corn unchanged to ⅛c lower at 62½c to 62⅜c, and although there was little corn offered at these prices the market weakened until July sold at 62⅛c. Traders generally were waiting for something to develop. Receipts were a little better at 58 cars.

Fractional advances were made and held in very small demand from commission houses early. Business was dull and the weather was bearish. July opened ⅛c to ¼c higher at 66⅛c to 66⅜c. Receipts were 109 cars.

Corn was sold rather freely after the first hour. The report that within a week local receipts would average 200 cars daily depressed prices still further and July closed weak, ⅜@⅝c lower, at 61¾@61⅞c.

Prices for hogs at the yards were lower and influenced renewed selling of yesterday's character in the provisions pit. There was some small support from packers, but it had very little effect early. July pork opened 7½c to 5c lower at $17.35 to $17.37½ and sold to $17.40; July lard 5@7½c to 2½@5c lower at $10.30 to $10.32½, and July ribs 5@7½c to 2½@5c lower at $9.67½ to $9.70.

WAS FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED

HENRY BICKNESE, VETERAN SHOPMAN, DIES SUDDENLY.

Had Long Been in Poor Health—Mrs. Charles Plybon Passes Away—Mortuary Matters.

Henry Bicknese, 66 years of age, one of the old employes of the Pennsylvania company, was found dead in bed this morning at his home, 225 Hough street. Mr. Bicknese had been in poor health for some time and the post mortem examination disclosed that death was due to heart trouble.

Mr. Bicknese retired at 7 o'clock last evening, complaining of feeling weak. No sound was heard from his room during the night, and shortly after 7 o'clock this morning the housekeeper, Mrs. Hanley, stepped to his room to call him to breakfast. Mr. Bicknese seemed to be sleeping quietly and she decided not to disturb him until later. At 8 o'clock Mrs. Hanley could get no response to her knock, and calling her sister, Mrs. Runde, the two entered the room only to find Mr. Bicknese dead. Coroner Barnett was called to the residence and made an examination.

Mr. Bicknese was born in Germany September 8, 1836, and had been a resident of Fort Wayne since 1862. His wife, who died some years ago, was formerly Mrs. Beugnot, the mother of John J. Buegnot, foreman of the Pennsylvania car machine shop. There is also an adopted daughter residing in St. Louis.

Mr. Bicknese was one of the most valuable employes in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop. He went to work in that department as an operator of machinery in March, 1862, and worked there uninterruptedly until April 27 last, when he was taken sick. About fifteen years ago an ingenious machine called the "bull-dozer" was introduced in the shops and Mr. Bicknese became its operator. Without a single exception this machine is the greatest labor-saving device ever put into a blacksmith shop, especially when it is in expert hands, such as have managed it ever since its installation. Before the arrival of the "bull-dozer," links, hangers, hooks and innumerable other forgings, big and little, were made by hand and at a cost many times that of the machine product. In Mr. Bicknese's hands this machine could turn out forgings bent in any desired shape and do it in one-seventh the time it would take men to perform the same task on the anvil in the old-fashioned way. He was not only an expert at the "bull-dozer," but was useful in many other ways in the shop and his genial, accommodating nature made him a great favorite with his fellow shopmen. The news of his death reached the shops at 8 o'clock this morning and it caused a severe shock to the men employed there. Mr. Bicknese was not considered seriously ill and he called at the shops yesterday and talked with his comrades, expressing the hope of coming back to resume his duties in a few days.

PLYBON.

Mrs. Mary Blanche Plybon, wife of Charles Plybon, died at 3:30 o'clock this morning at her home, 2323 Smith street, from tuberculosis at the age of 29 years.

She was a member of the L. C. B. A. No. 370, and had many friends. Surviving are the husband and a little daughter, Marguerite Elizabeth. Other relatives include the mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Clay, and one brother. The bereaved husband is a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad.

The remains will be shipped to Logansport, where the funeral services will be held on Monday.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Olds.—Funeral services of Henry O. Olds will be held from the residence, 107 West Berry street, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Moffat officiating. The interment is private.

Engelking.—Funeral services of Henry Engelking will be held from Emmanuel Lutheran church Sunday afternoon.

KNOCKING AT THE DOOR

The Claims of Territories for Admission Into the Union of States.

The three territories of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma have apparently satisfied the committee of their right to statehood. Congress has stood them off from year to year, though with each fresh appeal their claims have grown stronger. Why should we delay longer with respect to Arizona, unless it may be to wait until she is populous enough to divide and make two states, as in the case of Dakota? She has an area, nearly as large as New England and New York combined, and a population of 175,000, with $200,000,000 of property to tax for the support of state government. New Mexico possesses even more unchallengeable requisites for statehood. In extent it is about equal to the state of New York. The census gives it nearly 200,000 inhabitants, but upon the basis of registration, which at the last election was 60,000, it claims, with some reason, a population of 300,000. Within a year and a half there have been constructed within its borders seven hundred miles of railroad, and in other respects it has been prosperous enough to attract 40,000 or 50,000 settlers in that time.

The taxable values of its property is about $300,000,000, and it makes the claim that if admitted into the union it would be the lowest-taxed state in it. A champion of its state rights writes to the New York Tribune that it is "a progressive American community of loyal citizens that sent more soldiers to the civil and Spanish-American wars per capita than any other jurisdiction in the nation." The same authority adds that it "would today have an immense bank account had it been treated since its acquisition as the Philippines are now being treated. Instead of that, it has been kept and is being kept under a territorial form of government, governed by carpet-baggers and at times by played-out politicians from the states."

Twenty-seven years ago, at the instance of Senator Elkins, then delegate from the territory, a bill for its admission passed both houses of congress, but failed through differences as to detail in the conference committee. Since that time it has been progressing industrially and educationally, and if, in the opinion of a majority of congress at that time, it was fit for statehood, the additional mellowing for nearly a generation ought to have dispelled all lingering doubts in the matter.

Though the youngest, Oklahoma is perhaps the most insistent of the three, as in many respects it has a right to be. While it is 56 years since the United States took the territory of New Mexico, it will be only 12, month after next, since this young giant among the political divisions of our country was born. There is very little foreign population there and the inhabitants claim that it contains more people within its boundaries than were ever before included in a territory asking for statehood. The estimate of population places it at over half a million. There are four great trunk lines of railroad and many branches running through it. It has 200 national and territorial banks, with resources of $200,000,000, and the indebtedness is less than $1 per capita. Special attention has been given to education, as is attested by over 2,500 public school houses, so located as to be accessible to every man desirous of educating his children. It also has a university, an agricultural college, and normal schools. Its population is almost exclusively made up of those who have been citizens of states and feel a special pride in the prospects of the new commonwealth. No good reasons for further delay have been advanced, and no more deserving candidates than these three have solicited statehood within a generation.—Boston Transcript.

RIFTS ON MARS' ICE CAP.

Despite the remarkable contribution to knowledge given recently by Prof. Holden in the question of physical conditions on Mars, no less a scientist than Prof. Percival Lowell contributes to the last number of Popular Astronomy a labored, detailed paper on rifts in the polar "ice caps" of that member of the solar system. As there is every reason to think that the temperature on Mars is very low—probably somewhere between 100 and 200 degrees below zero Fahrenheit, the term "ice," meaning frozen water, is ridiculous as applied to this planet. Mars receives but half the quantity of heat that comes to the earth and has no atmosphere to retain it as we have. The result of this is that temperatures are appallingly low. It is believed that frozen carbonic acid gas is what causes the so-called "ice caps" on Mars.

BERLIN ECCENTRIC'S ODD WILL.

A rich and eccentric man who died the other day in Berlin left a will which was to be opened immediately and a codicil to be opened after the funeral. The will said: "Every member of my family who shall abstain from attending my funeral is to receive 300 marks." As a result the funeral was attended by his housekeeper, a distant cousin. On the codicil being opened it was found to enact that the residue of the fortune was to be divided among those who, notwithstanding the loss of the 300 marks, attended his funeral. Hence the housekeeper gets all, but the heirs threaten to dispute the will.

SHAKESPEARE'S GLOVES.

Shakespeare's gloves are now in the possession of a private collector, no less than Dr. Horace Howard Furness, the eminent scholar and the editor of the Variorum edition of Shakespeare. "They lie," writes an interviewer who recently visited the doctor at his home, "in a case of their own in one of the bay windows. It seems scarcely credible to the twentieth century visitor that those dull buff gauntlets could have been creased by the hands that wrote Macbeth and Julius Caesar, or that the gold stitching of the embroidery on the deep cuffs could have been frayed by the careless use of the man whose name is written first on the glorious roll of the sixteenth century. Yet their pedigree, so to speak, is direct and authentic. Given in 1769 to David Garrick by the actor John Ward, they were given by him to his widow and by her to Sarah Siddons. Mrs. Siddons bequeathed them to her daughter, Mrs. George Combe, by whom they were given to Fanny Kemble, 'and by this ever dear and gracious lady to the present owner.' There, in the sunshine that floods the long library, they rest today, surrounded by the books and souvenirs that speak most clearly and lovingly of the great master dead and gone, owned now by the man who more than any other has brought out the full strength and significance and delicacy of the lines penned by the hands they once covered. Down in a corner of the case lies a card, its edges a trifle worn and the ink upon it already yellowing with the years, which bears the legend: 'Last Readings of Shakespeare. Admit Mr. Furness and friend. Fanny Kemble. Full course.' And between those few lines is written the story of how it happened that Horace Howard Furness was won to the love of Shakespeare and how it is that he has given his life, and faculties, and sympathies to the editing of the poet's work."

YOUNG MOTHER'S ANXIETY.

There is something about a young mother too sweet and touching for me ever to poke fun at her, but physicians, being by training and nature perfectly heartless and hardened, will do it. A thrill of indignation ran through me yesterday, or it may have been the day before, when a certain doctor came up to me with one of those heartless smiles that only doctors ever wear and told me of the happiness of a friend of mine to whom April's late days have brought a little daughter.

"Is it a nice baby?" I asked, quite foolishly, of course, for every new baby is the nicest thing on earth.

"O, yes, it's a fine child," he said, "but just guess what the mother's first question about it was?"

I neither guess nor play policy, and I said so.

The vainglorious doctor chuckled and laughed as if he was about to say something worth hearing.

"Why," said he, "the very first thing she said, and the baby whooping the roof off, was: 'O, doctor, is it tongue-tied? Tell me immediately if it is tongue-tied! I shan't stop worrying till I know!' "—Washington Post.

Are you interested in good clothes?

Mr. Man, if you are and desire to become acquainted with the many attractive points that the makers have put in the Sheilds clothes we shall be glad to show them to you.

Some of them are hidden—they are very important, too, but you'll have to take our word for them being all right, and which the great tester—wear—will prove can be relied upon.

The talking points, the exclusive patterned fabrics and styles, the tailoring and perfection of fit, those that you can see, are the ones you'll appreciate if you are a tailor's customer—even to the satisfied feeling do we equal his predictions and at a great deal less cost.

Come yourself and see these good clothes—the suits in all the latest styles and made from the neatest of fashionable fabrics.

TRAINS TO BE ABOLISHED.

The news of the abolishment of the court train from the dress worn at King Edward and Queen Alexandra's court sends a thrill of joy through the human heart. Impecunious ladies who were obliged to add this costly tail to their gowns in Victoria's day or remain away from their sovereign's parties rejoice at the new order and gentlemen who have stumbled and tripped over peeresses' trains may now keep their equilibrium, unless something else is the matter with them. It has been said of some economical women present at the Victorian drawing rooms that the voluminous train was afterward remodeled into dinner and ball gowns, and, furthermore, it was often hired for the occasion.—Boston Herald.

DUNKARDS MOVING

THOUSANDS OF THESE PEOPLE GOING TO HARRISBURG.

WABASH HAS SPECIAL TRAIN

LEAVES THIS CITY WITH 559 PASSENGERS ABOARD.

APPROPRIATION FOR SHOPS

ELECTRIC COMPANY TO SPEND $500,000 NEXT YEAR.

Travel to Harrisburg, where the Dunkards, will hold their annual national gathering, is much heavier than the railway people expected and far in excess of travel to any of the previous gatherings of these people. The Wabash road seemed to have the bulk of the business from the western and middle states, and for the accommodation of the travelers a special train was run from St. Louis and Kansas City, via Niagara Falls, where the travelers are today doing some sightseeing. This train was one of the most magnificent of its kind ever sent upon a similar mission. It consisted of five chair cars, six coaches and a baggage car, all brand new and all wide vestibuled and equipped with all the modern appurtenances of a first-class train. The train was hauled over the eastern division by engine 631, also nearly new and freshly cleaned, one of the company's flyers that have distinguished themselves by establishing speed records which are likely to remain unbroken for some time. When the train pulled out of Fort Wayne at 7 o'clock last evening it carried 559 passengers. Of these 94 got aboard here, 60 at Wabash and 41 at Huntington, the others coming chiefly from St. Louis. The train was in charge of Conductor Walter Cook and Engineer E. C. Irish manipulated the throttle. But the bulk of this business on the Wabash went via the Detroit line. On that division there were four sections of train No. 6, and two of them had thirteen cars. Most of these passengers were from the west, being turned over to the Wabash at Chicago.

The Pennsylvania is also getting considerable business of this character, but it being a shorter route and no stop-overs, the Dunkards who go that way have hardly commenced to move yet. No. 20 yesterday had 35 of them out of this city and 17 from Columbia City. Tonight No. 6 will have three cars filled with Dunkards and all the trains tomorrow will carry extra coaches for the accommodation of those who will be picked up at the stations along the line between Chicago and Lima. The officials have notice of quite a party which will leave on the early Monday morning trains.

Dunkard travel on the Nickel Plate commenced yesterday, on account of the desire of many of the travelers to stop over a day at Niagara, and all the eastbound trains had a number of these people aboard. No. 2 had two special cars for this business and took on passengers enough at this point to nearly fill one of them. Dunkards were picked up at nearly all the stations between this city and Bellevue by this train and by Nos. 4 and 6, and taken as a whole, the Nickel Plate did a big business and has no grounds for complaint. District Passenger Agent C. A. Asterlin accompanied the train No. 2 to the falls.

TAKES A LONG LAY OFF.

J. S. Carey, who is a carpenter by trade, but who has been employed as a brakeman on the Nickel Plate for some time, has taken a ninety days' leave of absence and will work at his trade in the meantime. Business on the road is dull and even the regular trainmen—those who have regular assignments—are making barely enough to support themselves and families. When an opportunity opens for steady work in other lines the men are eager to accept it and the officials never refuse them that privilege. They are subject to recall, however, whenever there is a demand for their services on the road. These periods of light traffic are not uncommon in the spring and early summer months, but they usually continue ony a few days. The present condition of business has been of uncommon duration, however, and cannot be explained. It may change for the better in a few days and continue good the balance of the year.

SEVERAL ACCIDENTS.

Machinist Apprentice Miller, at the Wabash shops, had a toe of the left foot crushed this morning by a car wheel falling upon it. Miller operates a boring mill and the wheel got beyond control when he was about to remove it from the machine. The young man was transferred from the Springfield shops to this shop a short time ago.

Andy Koonz, a painter in the engine department of the Pittsburg shops, while assisting in taking down a scaffold, let one of the planks drop and its end struck his left foot, breaking the bone of the great toe. He went to the office of Dr. Stemen, had the fracture reduced and then went to his home, 330 Francis street.

D. F. Michaels had a finger badly cut and E. Felger had an ankle sprained while at work at the Pittsburg freight house last night. They are truckmen.

Charles Henkel, of the Wabash boiler shop, had his right leg painfully cut just above the knee and the nail of the great toe torn off by being struck by the falling of a piece of boiler steel, which he was helping some men to remove from its resting place. The injury will disable the man for some time.

A WONDERFUL RAILWAY.

The New York Tribune of a recent date contained comments upon the recent report of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, covering the past seven years, which will be interesting to the people who are in any way connected with railways. The article in part says: "In seven years the Pennsylvania's gross earnings have increased from 64 to 101 millions; the net from 19 to 34 millions. It has spent largely and bought largely in these years, rounding out its great system by purchasing control of connecting roads. The purchase moneys have been raised mainly by issues of its own stock at substantial premiums. Bond issues have been light—a few millions. Every year the dividend fund remaining after all charges are paid has never been much more than half disbursed. When this fund was ten millions, six were paid out; when it rose to seventeen millions, less than nine were paid out; when last year it reached twenty-two millions, less than eleven were paid out. The surplus has annually gone back into the property. In 1899 the dividend fund was $10,000,000, equal to 8 per cent. on 130 millions of stock. Dividend paid, 5 per cent., calling for $6,500,000—surplus, four millions. The year 1900 dividend fund was $17,300,000, equal to 12 per cent. on 146 millions of stock. Dividend paid, 5 per cent., and 1 extra, calling for $8,600,000—surplus, eight and a half millions. The year 1901 dividend fund was $22,200,000, equal to 12 per cent. on 180 millions of stock. Dividend paid, 5 per cent., and 1 extra, calling for $10,600,000—surplus, $11,300,000.

A LABOR SAVING DEVICE.

The Pittsburg Dispatch prints a picture of some machinery that is employed in carrying earth out of an excavation that is being made on the Fort Wayne road at that place and which takes the place of the men with wheelbarrows who were formerly the only carriers in that kind of work. The machine consists of a long canvas belt running over rollers and driven by a small hoisting engine, such as all contractors in that kind of work use. The belt is arranged to run from the far side of the excavation to the sidings, where it deposits the earth the shovelers threw upon it on the cars.

LEARNING A ROUTE.

B. Stemen, son of Dr. George B. Stemen, left this morning for Pittsburg, where he will receive instructions preparatory to taking an Adams express route on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road. The young man has been employed as night clerk at the sub-station at the Pittsburg depot for some time. He is in line for promotion, a bright young fellow and no doubt his advances will come regularly and frequently.

HIRING BLACKSMITH HELPERS.

Foreman Joseph Slater, of the Bass blacksmith shop, has been increasing his force of workmen from time to time, until now he has the largest force ever employed in that department of the great works. The most recent acquisitions in the way of help occurred this morning, when M. Fritz, J. Beckman and E. Beach commenced work there.

ON FISHING EXPEDITION.

H. G. Shuster, foreman; H. Zollinger, W. H. Korte, G. Ketchum and J. X. Klingenberger, carpenters at the Pittsburg shops, left on Pennsylvania train No. 15 this morning for Plymouth. Thence they will go ten miles in the country to a famous fishing resort, where they will spend three days. This trip was arranged for a week ago, but was postponed on account of the bait man meeting with an accident in his search for angle worms.

WILL SPEND HALF MILLION.

The Sentinel is informed through a perfectly reliable source that the Fort Wayne Electric company, which has already invested $247,000 in the plant in this city, will double that amount for building and equipment purposes next summer. The only thing that can intervene to change the plans for this improvement is a decrease in the business of the firm, a contingency for which there is not the least indication at present. The works have more orders on their books than they can fill on contract time without working the shopmen over-time occasionally, and it is believed, were the plant able to handle it, it could get three times the amount of business it is now doing. The company appropriated $87,000 for additions and equipment that are now in progress and next year, as stated, a sum sufficient to treble the capacity of the plant will be available if the business conditions warrant such expenditure. It is the intention of the proprietors and those who have the management of the plant to expand until the pay rolls contain 1,400 or 1,500 names, making it second in a labor-employing way to the Pennsylvania company.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Allen F. Fromuth is a new name on the pay rolls at the Pittsburg roundhouse.

Master Mechanic M. R. Coutant is in Peru this afternoon on business for the Wabash.

After a week's sickness, R. W. Shaw resumed his duties in the Pittsburg shops this morning.

Brakeman F. Lantz, who was east on private business, resumed his duties on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Brakeman W. E. Schlink, of the Pittsburg, who was injured some time ago, reported for work this morning.

Carl Stenger, who had an eye injured in the Wabash boiler shops some time ago, reported for duty this morning.

Chief Clerk T. J. Kucher, of Trainmaster D. H. Caldwell's office, at the Nickel Plate, is confined to his home by sickness.

W. H. Dornte, of the Pittsburg copper shop, is off duty on account of a lame back, the result of an accident yesterday.

The engine output from the back shops of the Pennsylvania this week was as follows: Nos. 155, 539, 419, 232, 116 and 119.

W. M. Mason and Albert Spangle, truckmen, quit their positions at the Wabash shops this morning to take positions elsewhere.

The Nickel Plate color blind car and crew, Messrs. L. L. Bart and C. R. Lynas, have completed their examinations here and this morning went to Bellevue.

Two magnificent sail boats, each making a load for a flat car, passed through the city over the Nickel Plate yesterday, consigned to the Culver military academy.

Trainmaster C. E. Wells, of Peru, and Freight Agent L. M. Andrews, of Lafayette, both of the Wabash road, were in the city this morning on business for the company.

There was nothing new to report in the strike situation at the Wayne knitting mills today. The works are open for the men and girls to return to their places, but none have done so.

Col. R. G. Thompson and L. S. McClellan, district passenger agents of the Wabash, the latter from St. Louis, accompanied the special train carrying Dunkards to Niagara last night.

The Electric works loaded for shipment to Wyandotte, Mich., this morning a number of arc lamps. The lighting plant at that place, which was installed a few months ago, is to be enlarged.

A "beef train," as the trainmen call the trains carrying dressed meats east for export, passed through the city over the Nickel Plate at 6:30 o'clock last evening. It consisted of thirty-five cars, weighed 1,300 tons and was hauled by No. 19, a new Brooks engine.

The Lake Shore brought in 250 and the Lake Erie and Western brought in 200 people last night to see Viola Allen at the Temple. About thirty came up from Decatur and fifty from Huntington for the same purpose.

Two large steel tanks, 8x16 feet, left the Bass works this morning for Newark, N. J. This makes six tanks of this description that have been forwarded to that city during the past week, and two more will follow in a day or two.

E. G. Cotner, who obtained a six months' leave of absence from the Pittsburg paint shop to visit the Pacific coast country, has returned to the city after an absence of six weeks. He will resume his duties at the shops Monday.

Paul A. Meyers and E. Zorbaugh, machinists at the Pittsburg shops, are sick and off duty today. Six of the machinists, who are members of the Hibernian Rifles, are also absent from the shop, being with the company at the encampment.

Foreman T. J. Rodabaugh, of the Pittsburg paint shop, was a loser of about $25 by the fire which consumed Joe Bell's barn yesterday. A portion of the roof of Mr. Rodabaugh's barn was burned and the paint on one side of the building was blistered and blackened so badly as to make its renewal necessary. Repairs will be made next week.

Official notice of the awarding of the contract for the erection of the Pittsburg roundhouse was received at the Pennsylvania offices yesterday. The contract includes everything but the turntable and the tracks, and it involves an expenditure of $90,000. John Suelzer, the contractor, has already commenced receiving bids on the material that will go into the building.

Canada is devising a scheme of compulsory arbitration of the wage question on its railways. Any road locking out its employes will be subject to a fine equal to the salaries of the employes during the term of the lockout, and shall also forfeit a sum equal to double the sum of salaries for the same term, and any one who goes on strike is liable to a fine equal to his salary for the length of the strike.

Bill Brothers, Muncie glass manufacturers, have announced that an independent belt line will be built soon to connect their factories and the factories of other stockholders, whose names are withheld, with the railroads entering Muncie. The company will be called the Muncie and Western and has been incorporated with the secretary of state with a capital of $50,000. The line will be independent of the Muncie Belt railway, which has always provided factory terminals. The road will be from ten to twelve miles long.

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

The board of works came near breaking the record of short sessions for last night when only twenty minutes were consumed in the transaction of actual business, only Members Eggemann and Doellmann with Clerk Schmidt being present, Member Zollinger being at Indianapolis at the G. A. R. encampment. Several pavement and sewer matters of altogether insignificant importance were disposed of and then an adjournment was taken.

Colonel Zollinger, of the board of works, returned from Indianapolis this morning.

H. G. Pfeiffer has been granted a permit to remodel a house on East Wayne street at a cost of $300; Charles Greenick, Woodland avenue, new house, $1,800; D. Bolyard, remodel house on Hanna street, $300; J. M. Henry, addition to shop, Pearl street, $500.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS' SOCIAL.

The members of the Second Church Christ Scientists were most pleasantly entertained last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Woods at 24 East Washington street. During the evening between seventy-five and eighty persons called and the spacious apartments of the host and hostess were constantly taxed for accommodations. Killen's orchestra of five pieces rendered a delightful musical program, which was interspersed by singing by the church choir. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served and the entire occasion was so delightful that the discontinuance of street car service had no terrors for even those who live in remote parts of the city and it was after midnight before the last of the guests had departed. A feature of the evening was the presentation to August Dornte of a magnificent morocco, 8-gauge bound copy of the Scientists' hymnal, in recognition of his faithfulness and efficiency in promoting the welfare of the church.

DO NOT DESPAIR! Rouse Yourself and Be a Man.

Consult a Specialist who will positively cure you. Delays are dangerous—Tomorrow may be too late.

Dr. Gasaway's Treatment MEANS

CURE

To the Nervous and Circulatory Systems.

VARICOCELE

Nervous Blood and Skin Diseases, Cured to Stay Cured.

I CURE (TO STAY CURED)

Varicocele, Nervous Debility, Blood Poison and all Vital Weaknesses and Diseases of Men.

VARICOCELE is one of the most prevalent, insidious and serious diseases. The cause is stagnation of blood in the veins, first sign an itching and dragging weight. It is known to the medical profession as a great menace to body and mind. It steals your vitality, robs you of your mental faculties, destroys your ambition. If not cured may end in insanity and death; you must be cured.

Associate Diseases.

In curing a disease of any kind I never fail to remove all reflex complications. If the case is Varicocele, the weakness caused by it disappears. If it is Stricture, and has developed into Prostatic, Bladder or Kidney affections, the injured organs are all restored to a perfectly healthy condition. If it is contagious Blood Poison, any and all Skin, Blood and Bone diseases arising from the taint are entirely and permanently eliminated from the system. If it is Nervous Debility, the many distressing symptoms following in its train and indicating a premature decline of physical and mental power are totally removed and rapidly replaced by the youthful energy of robust manhood. Hence all resulting ills and reflex complications which may be properly termed associate diseases and which in fact are often more serious than the original ailment that gives rise to them—all I say—disappear completely and forever with the cure of the main malady.

A Fair Proposition.

When I tell you that I have a positive cure for Nervous Diseases, Varicocele and all Pelvic diseases, and offer to prove to you by documental evidence, that is backed by over 1,000 living testimonials, have you the right to disbelieve the statement without investigating its truth? Is not your health and future happiness worthy of your time and trouble to substantiate the truth of my assertions? When I offer you a thorough personal examination FREE, and then explain to you how I can cure you, how long it will take and how much it will cost you is it not worth the effort to call, or if you are out of the city, to write me in detail, giving an exact description of your trouble and its present advancement? You will receive by return mail a correct diagnosis of your ailment free. Undoubtedly you have never been examined by a specialist one who can correctly and minutely explain in simple language your exact condition.

Mrs. Blank, who keeps summer boarders, had bought her butter for some months of a neighbor named Jones, living not far distant. The butter was made into pretty little half-pound pats and so peculiarly ornamented and marked that one day when little Sally Jones had brought the butter as usual, Mrs. Blank said to her in the presence of several of the boarders:

"How does your mother make all of these strange marks on the butter, Sally?"

"Oh, she does that with her false teeth, ma'am," was the frank and paralyzing reply.—Lippincott's Magazine.

GARNISHMENT IS DISSOLVED

BY THE ACT OF ADJUDICATION IN BANKRUPTCY.

Referee Chapin Makes Important Ruling Bearing on Railroad Employes' Cases.

Judge A. A. Chapin, of this city, referee in bankruptcy, has just made a ruling of much importance in connection with the garnishee cases against Fort Wayne railroad employes.

Proceedings in attachment and garnishment begun in Chicago and in West Virginia against railroad men residing in Fort Wayne have caused a number of the men to go into bankruptcy, and then file petitions to restrain the railroad companies from paying their wages into foreign courts.

Referee Chapin holds that the adjudication in bankruptcy dissolves the garnishment proceedings begun against an insolvent debtor within four months prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy proceedings, and where proper application is made that the garnishee must pay the money into the bankruptcy court.

In one of the cases the matter was submitted to the general counsel for one of the railroad companies, who agreed with the conclusion of the referee. The result is that the money was paid into the bankruptcy court and the company assumes the burden of fighting the cases in the foreign courts.

SAW DAUGHTER PERISH.

New York, May 16.—Crippled with rheumatism and unable to move from her bed, Mrs. William Wagner, of Newark, N. J., saw her daughter, Edna, 2½ years old, burn to death within a few feet of her bed. Mrs. Wagner has been unable to get out of bed for a month. While her nurse was absent the child procured matches and while playing with them set fire to her clothing and the curtains. Mrs. Wagner screamed loudly, but the child was fatally burned before assistance arrived. After the fire, which had spread about the rooms, had been quenched, Mrs. Wagner was found to be unconscious.

CHAIR OF NERVOUS DISEASES.

At the meeting of the faculty of the Fort Wayne College of Medicine on Wednesday evening, it was decided to add to the body a lecturer on the diseases of the nervous system. Dr. G. W. McCaskey has occupied the chair of clinical medicine and nervous diseases, but the duties were too arduous for one lecturer, and it was decided to separate the divisions. The faculty has invited a very capable young physician residing outside the state to accept the chair, and his answer is expected in a few days. Dr. M. F. Porter was elected a delegate to the annual convention of the American Association of Medical Colleges.

MAY SUCCEED CORRIGAN.

Rome, May 16.—There are persistent reports at the vatican that Bishop Charles McDonnell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is likely to be the successor of the late Archbishop Corrigan of the archdiocese of New York. Nothing, however, has been decided pending the receipt of the names of the three candidates whom the clergy of the archdiocese will select, and from which the archbishop will be chosen. A high authority at the vatican said to the correspondent of the Associated Press that it seemed as though Bishop McDonnell could have the appointment for the asking.

TAKEN TO RICHMOND.

Charles Richerts, an insane inmate of the poor house, was taken to Richmond yesterday by Superintendent Turflinger. Richerts has been an inmate of the poor house since last August and for the past few months he has been violent, it being necessary to keep him handcuffed nearly all the time to prevent him from doing himself injury.

BASE BALL NOTES.

There was not enough doing in base ball yesterday to make it interesting for anybody except the fellows who got beat and the results in neither league or association had any appreciable effect upon the standing of any club, the leaders remaining as they were yesterday and the trailers holding on to their job with great persistency. The total attendance at three games played in the National league yesterday was 5,400, in two games in the American league was 3,397 and in the American association, three games, was 1,103.

GAVE LIFE FOR HER BROTHER.

La Crosse, Wis., May 16.—Grace Dickson, aged eight, gave her life for her three-year-old brother at Dresbach, Minn. A rattlesnake six feet long had crept into the house and was discovered by the girl as it was about to attack her little brother. Seizing a broom, she attacked the reptile, when it fastened its fangs in her body. She died in great agony yesterday afternoon.

MISS ALLEN WINS LAURELS

PRODUCTION OF THE CLASSIC "THE HUNCHBACK."

Theatrical Season Almost at an End After a Winter of Notable Successes.

Although several good attractions are booked for appearance at the Masonic Temple theater within a few days, the regular season nominally closed last night with Viola Allen in J. Sheridan Knowles' fine old classic, "The Hunchback." The event was one of the most notable of the season just closed, judged both by the merit of the performance and the attendance it drew. The out of town patrons numbered several hundreds and the house was crowded to its capacity. The audience was very appreciative and at times distinctly enthusiastic. Miss Allen in the character of Julia achieved new laurels here, which is something to speak of, for her repute in Fort Wayne already gave her a place second to no other artist. She was strongly supported by that sterling actor, Eben Plympton, in the character of Master Walter and Jameson Lee Finney as Modus. From time to time there are revivals of Sheridan Knowles' splendid comedy, and Julia is a part many an ambitious young artist has essayed, though not frequently with success. Miss Allen has splendidly triumphed in the character and her brief season with it has done much to unquestionably fix her place as one of the greatest of American actresses. She expressed her pleasure at the reception she was given last night.

HAD A GREAT SEASON.

Manager F. E. Stouder is greatly elated by the success of the theatrical season in Fort Wayne. The most pronounced successes here have been the highest class of attractions and the season has been notable for the large number of strictly high-grade bookings. Manager Stouder is convinced that Fort Wayne people have come to the point of steady appreciation of good shows and that to bring a first-class attraction here no longer involves to the degree it once did the element of dangerous speculation. Nor is there the difficulty of securing good attractions that once was experienced. He says:

"I have experienced more or less trouble in former years in getting the Frohmans, Liebler & Co., Klaw & Erlanger and the other eastern managers to give me high class shows because there are so many good cities in the United States that they did not feel like experimenting with Fort Wayne. Mrs. Stouder and I are going to New York next month to look over the ground, and I am convinced we will experience little trouble in securing attractions even better than have been shown in the house this season.

"I have always had confidence in the discrimination of the theatergoing public of Fort Wayne and I am truly grateful to all of the people who have given me such liberal patronage, and am gratified to know that I was correct in my judgment. I have given the public this season such attractions as William H. Crane in "David Harum," Ethel Barrymore in "Captain Jinks," Otis Skinner in "Francesca De Rimini," J. H. Stoddard in "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush," John Drew, Virginia Harned, Maud Adams, May Irwin, Blanche Walsh, Frank Daniels, Marguerita Sylva, Jerome Sykes, James K. Hackett and a number of others. All have played to good houses. There have, of course, been a number of repertory companies, but they have been of a good class, and taken all around I am thoroughly satisfied and truly grateful."

SUES TELEPHONE COMPANY.

Rochester, Ind., May 16.—Two years ago John Flinn, a farmer, was at his barn feeding hogs. A heavy storm was approaching and Flinn stood at the hog lot watching his herd and leaning on the barbed wire fence. Lightning struck the barbed wire and killed Flinn, and now the woman who was then his wife, but has since married again, has sued the Rochester telephone company for $10,000 damages, alleging that the lightning first struck the wires and poles belonging to the company and then jumped the fence posts near-by, and followed the barbed wire several hundred feet to where Flinn stood and killed him. Several of the telephone poles were damaged by the lightning, but the company has instructed its attorney to plead irresponsibility for Flinn's death.

IN MAD RACE TO SAVE TRAIN.

Miles City, Mont., May 16.—Mary Peden, fifteen years old, prevented what might have proven a serious railway disaster four miles from this city yesterday. She saw a bridge on fire on the Northern Pacific road and knowing that passenger train No. 2 was almost due, she rushed to the stable, mounted a horse and galloped madly in a race against time to the station here. She arrived as the big train came in sight. She notified the agent, who held the train four hours.

NOSE WAS BROKEN.

Will Keil, employed as a tuner at the Packard piano warerooms, on Calhoun street, had his nose broken in a fall at his home on Maumee avenue yesterday. Mr. Keil tripped over a box in the cellar and struck his face against another box, smashing the bones of his nose and inflicting a deep gash in his face.

Bluffton News: Eli Blosser, of Fort Wayne, was in the city, having a monument erected on his lot in Fairview cemetery. Mr. Blosser is conducting a feed yard at Fort Wayne and reports a nice business.

TO ACCOMMODATE those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

STYLISH SPRING COSTUMES.

NEW FEATURES IN TAILOR-MADES.

Gown of Fancy Suiting and White Moire.

The material for this handsome street costume is a fancy suiting, but it will also be quite chic if developed of smooth finished cloth. Some of the newest features in tailor mades, the basque or skirt as well as the broad shoulder effect are combined in this smart gown. The long rolling collar and the straps over the shoulder and around the bottom of the skirt are of moire. The revers and the extension vest are of white moire stitched with several rows of Corticelli silk; small buttons are set down the center of the vest as well as on the fronts, and clusters of buttons are placed on the shoulder straps and sleeves. The latter are quite novel, the fitted undersleeves of moire being completed with cloth oversleeves flaring at the bottom. The skirt is laid in wide tucks and spreads out into a very full flare at the hem.

As the season advances the preference for mixed and fancy suitings becomes more and more distinct and it seems almost as if the latter would in a very short time be used entirely, instead of the smooth-finished cloths; although the cloth is by far the most dressy in appearance, it is of more compact and closer weave than the mixed suitings and homespuns, which, together with Scotch tweed and covert cloth are in the lead at present.

SPECIAL MEETING OF A. O. H.

A special meeting of the county board of the A. O. H. will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Library hall to consider matters of importance to the order in this city. M. J. THEY CLING TO OLD COSTUMS

PEOPLE OF PALESTINE REFLECT LIFE OF LONG AGO.

Help to Better Understanding of the Bible—Miss Ben-Oliel's Entertaining Talk.

Before the meeting of the Fort Wayne Missionary Union at Westminster church Thursday evening Miss Florence Ben-Oliel, the gifted daughter of a famous missionary to Palestine, gave her hearers a delightful talk upon the people and customs of Palestine. Miss Ben-Oliel, herself attired in Oriental costume, and surrounded by a company of ladies and gentlemen wearing the dress of the natives of Palestine, threw about her talk an air distinctively eastern. From the moment of her opening salutation, "Peace be with you," to the conclusion of her address Miss Ben-Oliel endeavored to give a new and more thorough understanding of many of the scenes and expressions of the Bible.

She stated her purpose not to lecture on Palestine, but to give a little glimpse of Oriental life—of life among the natives of Palestine. Going herself to Palestine at the age of 16 there were many expressions in the Bible that had no particular meaning, but she saw there many things in the every day life of the individual that illustrated and illuminated the expression in Holy Writ.

"Despite the changes of centuries elsewhere," said Miss Ben-Oliel, "the manners, customs and costumes of Palestine have gone unaltered. It is possible today to go to the homes there and see the life that Christ lived, and in the cities, especially, one sees a life from 2,000 to 4,000 years old. These manners and customs are of the soil and not of the people."

Especial reference was made to the Arabs, the older class in Palestine, and the speaker described at some length the costume, the social position and the characteristics of three types—the chieftain or head of the tribe, the scribe or learned man, and the shepherd. The salutation with hands, lips and heart, with the significance of each step in the greeting was exemplified, and the three covenants, water, bread and blood, so often referred to in the Bible, were explained at length. From this water covenant came the Biblical statement, "Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give shall never thirst."

The bread covenant between the host and the stranger signified hospitality and protection, and despite his outside life, the Arab, said Miss Ben-Oliel, is the most perfect host in the world. Once in his home, and you have eaten bread and salt with him, you are sworn friends and he is for the time responsible for your safety. The blood covenant comes from olden times in two distinct forms, one a sacrificial side as practiced in the slaughtering of fine sheep or lambs in honor of the truth of friendship. The other is fittingly exemplified when despite the strong caste feeling the arm is bared and the exchange of life blood cements in eternal brotherhood two persons not otherwise intimately related. It was seen in the bond between Jonathan and David, bridging the social gulf between them.

Throughout the address Miss Ben-Oliel cited and explained the significance of many Bible expressions which are given a new and more complete meaning in the understanding of the customs which gave rise to them.

NOMINATED FOR JUDGE

Albion, Ind., May 16. The republican judicial convention of the Thirty-third judicial circuit, composed of Noble and Whitley counties, was held here yesterday. There were three candidates for judge—L. W. Welker and F. M. Prickett, of this city, and B. E. Gates, of Columbia City. For twenty-seven ballots there was little change in the voting, Messrs. Welker and Gates having an even number of votes. On the twenty-eighth ballot there came a break, nominating Mr. Welker.

He was the republican candidate in this circuit six years ago and was defeated by Judge Adair. Adair already has been nominated to succeed himself, so it means the old contest over again. Politically, the circuit is slightly republican. W. H. Kissinger, of Columbia City, was nominated for prosecutor.

STOMACHS ON STILTS

The man who stands on stilts does not increase his stature a particle. He may feel taller while he's on the stilts, but when he's off them he feels shorter than he ever felt. A man can't live on stilts; he must come off them sooner or later, and then he realizes that whatever seeming advantage he gained from his artificial elevation was only temporary.

Stimulants are the stilts of the stomach. They lift a man up for the time being, but the good feeling they give is only temporary. A man can't live on stimulants, and when he leaves them he feels worse than ever. In this age of hurry and worry a large percentage of the population have some form of stomach "trouble," popularly described as "weak stomach." The first impulse of the average man whose stomach is "weak" is to have recourse to stimulants. He feels bloated after eating, has frequent eructations and a general feeling of physical discomfort. He takes a glass of something to "stimulate his stomach" and make him "feel good." He may get the desired result for a time, but he is doing nothing for the disease which is in reality aggravated by stimulants instead of benefited. The need of the "weak" stomach is strength, and it is obvious that stimulants can't strengthen the stomach because there is no true strength in stimulants but only a false strength. The jaded horse is no stronger because he mends his pace when pricked by the spur. His extra effort is a drain upon the reserve of his vitality, which may result in a complete breakdown. The seeming strength of stimulants is the false strength of a body spurred to effort and making a call on the reserve of vitality, which may and does often result in total physical collapse.

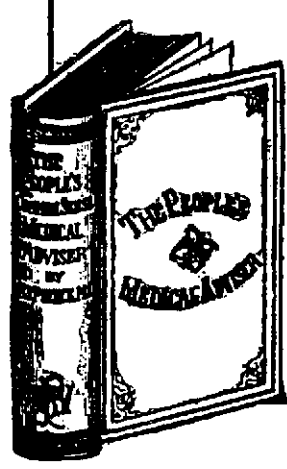
The success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in re-establishing the health of weak, run-down, dyspeptic men and women is due to the fact that it perfectly and permanently cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It does not brace up but builds up the body. It contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

"Last spring, early, I wrote you my feelings and condition," says Mr. A. J. Vanderwater, of 873 West Division Street, Chicago, Ills., "and you advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In all I have taken six bottles of the 'Discovery' and four or five vials of the little 'Pellets.' They have done me worlds of good. All my friends say: 'Vanderwater, how well you are looking. What in the world have you been doing?' I tell them I have been doctoring with Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. 'Why,' they say, 'you haven't been there?' 'No,' I say, 'but I took his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and his little 'Pellets.' These medicines have made the great change in me': from a slow mope of a man that could hardly crawl, tired and sick all the time, and who could do no work, to a man who can work, sleep, eat, and feel fine, and that tired feeling all gone away. I am very thankful that I wrote to Dr. Pierce. His 'Golden Medical Discovery' and his little 'Pellets' have almost made a new man of me. I feel as young as I did at thirty years. No other doctor for me, only Dr. Pierce."

"It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets' have done for me," writes Mrs. T. M. Palmer, of Peede, Kaufman Co., Texas. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would put me in distress. I lived two weeks on milk, and even that gave me pain. I felt as though I would starve to death. Three doctors attended me—one said I had dyspepsia, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking their medicine and tried other patent medicine; got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now, since using your medicines, I can do my housework very well; am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything I want."

No man can be stronger than his stomach. When disease fastens on the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, the consequences are felt by the whole body. A "weak" stomach means a weak man, because when the stomach is "weak" the digestive and assimilative powers fail to a greater or less extent, and the nutrition of the body is inadequate to its needs. But if "weak" stomach means weak man, then weak man means "weak" heart, "weak" kidneys, "weak" liver, "weak" lungs, etc., because the physical man is only the sum of his organs and members, and his weakness is the weakness of each and all of the organs of his body.

This fact explains the cures of "weak" heart, kidneys, liver, lungs and other organs, by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery." First the diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are cured, and thus the weak stomach is made strong. Digestion and assimilation are now perfect. The nutrition derived from food is all used, and not partly lost or wasted. The effects are at once shown in physical gain. The body puts on sound flesh and becomes strong, and as the body is composed of its organs and members, its restored strength means strength of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys — every organ receiving strength from the only source from which physical strength is derived, that is from food when properly digested and perfectly assimilated.



Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse and regulate the liver and bowels. They produce permanent benefit and do not react on the system.

THE WRONG LAW INVOKED

BICYCLE RIDERS DISCHARGED FROM THE COURT.

Affidavits Against Sidewalk Riders Did Not Specify Enough—The State of the Cases.

Some seventeen offenders against bicycle regulations were cited to appear at police court this morning and most of them were there, either in person or by attorney. There were no arrests for violation of the lantern ordinances, all of them being for riding on sidewalks. There were no practical results from the affidavits, all the cases but one being continued until tomorrow morning.

The first case called was that of George Waldschmidt, cashier at the Nuttman bank. He was represented by S. L. Morris, of Barrett & Morris. The affidavit was not as those of yesterday, under the ordinance, but charged a violation of the statutes and was prosecuted by the prosecuting attorney. Mr. Morris moved to dismiss the case on the grounds of insufficiency of the affidavit and want of jurisdiction. The motion was sustained and the case was dismissed. The basis for Mr. Morris' motion was that the statutes specifically describes the kind of pavement over which it is declared to be unlawful to ride a bicycle and specifies brick, plank, stone and gravel. It was admitted that Mr. Waldschmidt was arrested while riding on a cement sidewalk, which offense is covered by a city ordinance, but not by the statute. In a case taken to the supreme court and decided, according to the 117th Indiana reports, riding upon a cement sidewalk is not within the meaning of the statutes and upon that showing the case was dismissed; neither was the particular sidewalk and its location described, which is also necessary according to the interpretation of the law by the supreme court.

After the decision in this case the prosecution of the other cases was brought up with a round turn and all pending cases were continued until tomorrow morning. Meanwhile the affidavit will be corrected and made to conform to the statutes, and the cases where persons were arrested for riding on cement sidewalks will be prosecuted under the ordinances which cover such offense. The dismissal of Mr. Waldschmidt's case under the statute does not preclude his prosecution for a violation of the ordinances and an affidavit charging such offense will be made against him. There were four other cases of a similar character, but they were not called because the same rule woud have applied to all. Tomorrow, then, those who were arrested on brick, stone, plank or gravel sidewalks will be prosecuted under the state law and those who rode on cement sidewalks will be prosecuted under the ordinances. Meanwhile the officers have been instructed to continue to bring in all persons found riding on any kind of a sidewalk. It was related in court that a Western Union boy had been seen riding a bicycle last night with a Chinese lantern suspended from the handle bar and it was asked whether that could be construed as carrying a light. Officers were instructed to bring in the Chinese lantern partisans just the same as those who did not carry a light as prescribed by the ordinance.

OTHER POLICE CASES.

The other cases were those of Peter Ernest, Steward Boone and "Fighting Riley," all charged with public intoxication. They were disposed of in one, two, three order and all went to jail for 11 days each.

August Moring reported that someone had stolen his bicycle from in front of Parrott's meat market yesterday. Meanwhile the department is getting anxious about Herbert Tigar's wheel, which has not been reported stolen for nearly a week. The Tigar wheel is a reliable standby and now that there has been no report from it for several days, it is feared that it may have been stolen for good.

An affidavit was filed against Henry Pappert, the West Main street saloonkeeper for selling liquor without a city license. The offender agreed to take out his license today and it is probable if he does so that the case will be dismissed.

Edward Lasher and Tom O'Reilley fell from a scaffold while working on the residence of William Miller, on New Haven avenue, Wednesday. Lasher fell on a sand pile and was unhurt, but O'Reilley fell across a barbed wire fence and was badly scratched. He was unconscious for some time.

POLICE RAID ON A NEW YORK GAMBLING DEN.

New York gamblers are having a most strenuous time of it just now, for Gotham has a reform administration, and the police are unusually active. This view shows a raiding scene on a gambling place, an incident quite common in that city at present.

THE GREAT CANADIAN CURE

"WRIGHT'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY"

Is making cures where all other means have failed. Can you doubt such evidence as this?

PERU, Ind., Feb. 25, 1902.

It was while working in the Rolling Mills at Bellefonte, Pa., about six years ago, that I was first taken with "Sciatica" Rheumatism. I called in my physician, who prescribed for me, but gave no relief. I was compelled to take to my bed after a year's suffering. The physician of the company gave me up and said that my case was incurable and would speedily end in paralysis. My wife then sought another physician of note, who attended to me for about a year and who said that I could not be cured. I had been in bed for nearly two years suffering with everything, with such relief as hypodermic treatment gives. After being given up by the two physicians, through the influence of friends I was taken in as an inmate of the city hospital at Williamsport, Pa., and received the best treatment that hospital afforded. I remained about eleven weeks and was then discharged by the attending physicians as incurable and returned to my home. After several months at home, I was again sent to Williamsport, Pa., hospital, to be under the personal care of Dr. McCormac, a Specialist of repute, there crippled and almost helpless said that my case was hopeless, and I After five weeks under his care he sor another year I laid at my home again was returned to my home. Pcian without benefit, and as a last and was treated by the local physipital at Lock Haven, Pa., and recourse I was sent to the city hos staff of physicians, who at the end mained there under the care of theld not do anything for me, and for of five weeks told me that they cou home at Howard, Pa. I remained the third time I was returned to myor three years, when my family brought me to this city last October. I was barely able to move on crutches. While at the depot at Columbus, Ohio, I was spoken to by a gentleman who said that he had been cured of a bad attack of Sciatica by the use of "Wright's Rheumatic Remedy," and advised me to try it, and I was also advised by my sister-in-law, who said that this medicine was doing a great deal of good. It was upon the strength of such strong testimony that I procured a bottle, and to my great surprise, the awful pains that I had been bearing for nearly six years ceased before I had been taking your W. R. R. two weeks, and I began to feel better, and have been gaining in health and strength every day since. My right arm and hand were useless. Now the full use has returned. My limbs, that I could not bear to have touched, I can now use and can walk and go around as usual. I can hardly comprehend that after so long a time, being given up by three hospital staffs and three different physicians, that I am feeling so well, and now on the way to again being able to work and be of use and service to my family by the use of your wonderful W. R. R.

(Signed.) JAMES AGNEW.

This is to certify that Mr. James Agnew signed the foregoing testimonial in my presence and personally gave it to me of his own free will.

PELEE STILL IN ERUPTION

STREAMS OF LAVA CONTINUE TO POUR FORTH.

Dumb Brutes in Vicinity of Volcano Were in Terror Weeks Before the Eruption.

St. Kitts, B. W. I., May 16.—From an officer of the steamer Solent, just arrived from St. Pierre, it is learned that Mont Pelee is still in eruption. Lava flows in broad streams down the sides of the volcano. The entire island of Martinique continues in a state of panic.

In St. Pierre the desolation is appalling. Bodies are being burned in a great pyre, upon which kerosene is steadily sprayed. In spite of this it will be weeks before the place can be cleared of the dead.

JAMES P. HORNADAY.

Washington correspondent of the Indianapolis News, who has sailed on the United States cruiser Dixie for Martinique with Relief stores and who will represent his newspaper on the scene of the volcanic disasters.

Physicians who have made examinations say that in most cases death was due to asphyxiation and that the fire came later.

KILLED BY NOXIOUS GAS.

It is now believed that Mont Pelee threw off a great gasp of some exceedingly heavy and noxious gas, something akin to firedamp, which settled upon the city of St. Pierre and rendered the inhabitants insensible. This was followed by the sheet of flame that swept down the side of the mountain. This theory is accepted by the few survivors who were taken from the ships in the harbor, as they say that their first experience was one of faintness.

Looting is being sternly repressed. Soldiers now form a cordon about St. Pierre, and only those who have business there are allowed within the lines.

REFUGEES ARE STARVING.

Great suffering continues in Martinique. Food is being received, but not in sufficient quantities to feed the crowds of refugees that have flocked to Fort De France. The steamship Madiana, with food supplies purchased by the New York chamber of commerce, left here last night for Fort De France.

By those who have arrived here from Martinique it is said that the dumb animals were wiser than man. Mont Pelee long ago gave warning of the storm of fire which it was storing up to hurl upon the island. Residents of St. Pierre saw and heard the warnings and they refused to heed them. They remained and the danger which had long confronted them brought death to 30,000.

DUMB ANIMALS KNEW.

Even before Mont Pelee began to rumble, late in April, live stock became uneasy and at times were almost uncontrollable. Cattle lowed in the night. Dogs howled and sought the company of their masters, and when driven forth they gave every evidence of fear.

Wild animals disappeared from the vicinity of Mont Pelee. Even the snakes, which at ordinary times are found in great numbers near the volcano, crawled away. Birds ceased singing and left the trees that shaded the sides of Pelee.

A great fear seemed to be upon the island, and although it was shared by the human inhabitants, they alone neglected to protect themselves.

THREATEN TO LYNCH PASTOR.

Wymore, Neb., May 16.—A few evenings ago at the Methodist church Rev. L. G. Parker, the pastor, said: "The streets of this city will run red with blood before saloons will be permitted to operate." Sitting beside him was Rev. S. P. Benbrook, who, with Dr. Parker, has been conducting an anti-saloon fight. Wednesday night Mr. Benbrook fired five shots at Dr. W. H. Johnson, a member of the church, without hitting him, after an altercation over the saloon question. Threats of lynching were made, but suppressed. Yesterday Mr. Benbrook was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. His preliminary examination will take place today. He was kept in jail for safety Wednesday night, but yesterday gave bonds for $1,000 for his appearance.

ADDING NEW MACHINERY.

(Huntington Herald.)

The interior of the Southwestern Traction company's power house presents a very much disturbed appearance. There is a pit deep enough to reach bed rock and covering nearly all of the heretofore unoccupied space, which is now nearing completion. It is the company's intention to put a tandem compound engine in the power house which can be used in place of the engine now in operation whenever it becomes necessary. In this way there will be slight possibility of a tie-up on account of a lack of motive power. The excavations are nearing completion and the engine is now on its way, but it will of course be some time before it is installed and in working order. In addition to the engine two new boilers of about 750 horse power have been ordered and will be put in place with the engine.

RULES MULCT LAW IS VOID.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 16.—The supreme court ruled yesterday that sale of liquor to "boot-leggers" and other resident violators of the Iowa law cannot be prohibited when the sales are made by agents of non-resident dealers. The court holds that the section of the Iowa liquor law known as the "mulct law" prohibiting such sales is in conflict with interstate commerce laws and therefore is unconstitutional. The decision was rendered in the case of the state versus Pat Hanaphy, of Jefferson county, which was reversed in favor of the defendant, who was an agent for an Illinois liquor house soliciting orders at Fairfield, which were filled by shipment direct to the purchaser. The effect of the decision is to prevent further seizure of liquor in the hands of express and other transportation companies. It disposes of dozens of such cases now pending.

WEDDED AT SOUTH BEND.

(South Bend Tribune.)

Mr. David W. Brayer, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Miss Alta M. Kellogg, were married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, of River Park. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate relatives by Rev. D. M. Wood, D. D., pastor of Grace Methodist church. A wedding supper and reception followed the ceremony. Both are well known and popular young people. They will make their future home in Fort Wayne.

WILL LAY CORNERSTONE.

(Bluffton Banner.)

At Geneva, May 22, the Masons of this part of Indiana will lay the corner stone for the new school building now under proposed construction. Past Grand Master Geake, of Fort Wayne, will place his official seal of approval upon the occasion and Masons from Bluffton, Decatur, Willshire, Fort Wayne, Portland, Pennville and elsewhere will be there in numbers to assist and enjoy the many pleasures incident to such an occasion. The Hon. David E. Smith, of Decatur, has been selected by the local Geneva lodge to deliver the address and that means that the oratorical part of the program will not be neglected. The occasion will be one of considerable magnitude and interest to Geneva, as the new building will be a beauty, and will take the place of the one burned late last winter.

HICKSVILLE REMAINS "DRY."

(Hicksville News.)

The vote under the Beal local option law Monday stood 322 dry to 312 wet, a total of 634 votes cast and a majority of ten against the open saloon. The law will go into effect June 12th, thirty days after the date of the election. There is talk of a contest owing to some illegalities in the election, but this is not likely nor would another vote change the result. A full vote was out on both sides.

JUNK DEALER'S SCHEME FAILS.

The following story is told of a junk dealer in Ohio whose frugality proved a bad kind of economy: "The junk man had an order from a neighboring city for two car loads of brass filings, and as there was a difference in the freight of about $60, he decided to ship the filings in gondolas, and cover them with a few inches of cinders, and ship them as cinders at 40 cents a ton freight. Two cars were thus taken to a certain spot where the railway company was making a fill. Perverse forture emptied the two cars of filings into the hollow and the train men then emptied eighteen cars of real cinders on top of them. Two cars of cinders were delivered to the purchasers of the filings. Hot correspondence ensued and the irate junkman threatened to sue the railway company for his $1,500 loss. The company declines and offers to reimburse him for two cars of cinders, value $35. And so that matter stands. It is likely that the next time the junk dealer will willingly pay the freight."

COLLEGE BUILDING FALLS.

Barcelona, May 16.—A college building collapsed yesterday at Le Lerida. Many pupils were buried in the ruins. The director and five children perished.

DIMINUTIVE PONY.

About the smallest thing in the pony line ever seen in Fort Wayne is a colt foaled by a Shetland mare belonging to Dr. J. M. Shutt, of Lakeside. The little fellow is twenty-two inches high, weighs thirty pounds and measures twenty inches around the girth.

REV. O'REILLY WILL PREACH.

Rev. Charles O'Reilly, S. T. D., of Detroit, who is visiting in the city, will preach at St. Patrick's church on Sunday at high mass. Father O'Reilly is treasurer of the Irish Land league and is prominent in Catholic circles throughout the country.

Ligonier Banner: Sol Kann and family are now residents of Fort Wayne. Mr. Kann having finished the removal of his household goods last Monday. We are, indeed, sorry to see Mr. Kann and his estimable wife leave our city, but his growing interests at Fort Wayne made it imperative that he take up his residence there. He is one of the principal stockholders in the Independent Rubber company.
